CELEBRATING 30 years of marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Deurloo of Torrance were feted at a party given them by their friends.

Celebrate 30th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Deurloo recently celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary at a party given by their friends.

The party was to be a surprise for Mrs. Deurloo but she and her husband returned a little before all the guests had assembled.

Many presents carrying out the pearl motif for the occasion were received. Someone even presented the couple with a can of oysters, just in case.

The Deurlongs have spent all of their married life in the South Bay Area. Mr. Deurloo has been employed by the Borax and Chemical Corporation in Wilmington for 26 years.

They have three children, a son in the Air Force in Germany, a married daughter, the mother of three children, and a son, 13.

Guests attending the party

Alaska Film to Be Meeting Feature

Turkeys for door prizes and a film on Alaska will be featured at the Nov. 25 meeting of the Los Angeles Transportation Club at the Los Angeles Biltmore Hotel.

Guests are welcome, reservations may be made by calling Miss Ann Boecking, MA 8-3987.

Alfred A. Roberg, will serve as Chairman of the day.

Country Auction This Weekend In Lomita

A country style auction, sponsored by the Lomita Chamber of Commerce will be held at the corner of Lomita Blvd. and Woodward from 12-6 p.m. this weekend.

Auctioneers will be Dewey Blair, chairman and George Shilos, co-chairman.

The proceeds will go toward the Christmas fund, to provide help for needy families and for hospital visits.

'Holiday Styles' Make Hit at Fashion Show

Original creations in high holiday fashion were shown at yesterday's meeting of the Alpha Delta Pi South Bay Association held at the home of Mrs. Allen Ducommun, 31 Maverick Lane, Rolling Hills.

Cynthia Saakes, owner of Cynthia's Casuals 208 Manhattan Beach Blvd., presented the show's ensembles. The exclusive creations were fashioned from imported hand woven fabrics from Mexico and woolsens from France.

Bulky knit sweaters made by a group of Indians in Mexico for the dress shop, were among items featured. Accessories of hats, bags and beads with shoes by Capezio completed each outfit.

The models chosen from the Alumnae group were Mmes. Joe Henrickson, Charles Livergood, Jack Kettler and oRbert Harnar, Jr.

Co-hostesses for the show were Mrs. John W. Hanson and Mrs. John McKenna.

Local Models to Present Latest In Fashions

Plans are made and the stage set for the "Fashion Spectacular" when the Lomita BPW presents its annual scholarship benefit fashion show Nov. 22, at 7:30 p.m., at the Retail Clerks Union Hall, 260th at Bellporte Ave. in Harbor City.

The latest in fashions for all the family will be modeled and displayed with commentary by Jo Marie Kennedy. Models will be local women, among them, Nancy Loy, Anna Jean, Polly Orr, Lavilla McMillan, Corrine Orr, Joan Franklin, Betty Brooks and others.

Participating merchants are, Donlen's Men's Shop, Loy's Kidie Togs, Harriet's, Bobby Jean's, Hasvold's, Green's, Wilson's, and Lenore's.

Musical interludes will feature vocal and piano selections. Proceeds will go toward a scholarship to a deserving senior girl from Narbonne High School. Show chairmen are Sarah and Beverly Litton. Tickets may be obtained from members, and will be available at the door. Refreshments will be served and door prizes awarded.

Art of Gracious Living Taught Ladies of Elks

The "Art of Gracious Living" will be taught at the Nov. 25 social of the Ladies of the Elks, at the Elks Hall, 1951 W. Carson, 8 p.m.

The Florence Blake Studio of 1122 Crenshaw Blvd. will furnish the entertainment.

Everyone is invited. Refreshments will be served.
