Five Enlist In U. S. Navy

Dave Fields, Torrance Navy recruiter, announced today that five more Torrance youth enlisted recently at the recruiting station, 16422 South Vermont Ave.

Louise Hager, seaman recruit, enlisted in the WAVE's and is now at the Naval Training Center, Bainbridge Md. Louise graduated from North Torrance High in June. She is the daughter of

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hager, 21702 Ladeene Ave.

Richard Specht, high school seaman recruit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Specht, 4139 W. 182nd St.
John Rosser, seaman recruit,

17918 Cordary Ave., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rosser, of Sausalinas.

Darrell Klatt, seaman recruit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Klatt, 3758 W. 181st St.
Specht, Rosser, and Klatt are at the U.S. Naval Training Center, San Diego, undergoing 9 weeks of "Boot Training."

Reenlisting was Victor Van Houten, constructionman, husband of Marilyn Van Houten, 1542 226th St.

IN THE FAMILY—Mrs. Tena F. Davis, left, of 1721 Martina Ave., who is a nurse's aide at Riviera Hospital, helped in the delivery of her first grandchild, Mark Victor Van Houten, who was born in hospital Saturday. Grandma, and the baby's mother, Mrs. Victor Van Houten, of 1542 W. 226th St., admire the baby, who weighed 6 pounds, 11 3/4 ounces at birth.

Fifth Car in Week Crashes Into Barricade

Workmen who are toiling on improvement on a flood control project at 174th St. and Western Ave., are probably getting sick and tired of picking up the pieces.
The fifth car in a week crashed through the barricades on Western Ave. early Monday morning, just north of 178th St.
California Highway Patrolmen

STEAL COIN COLLECTION

A $500 coin collection was stolen from the home of Oliver Fletcher, 19425 Anza Ave., police reported.
said that the driver left the scene of the accident before their arrival, abandoning the car near the flood channel.
They said the vehicle was registered to Leslie Scultz, of 22733 S. Main St.
Torrance police said that four other accidents have occurred at the scene during the past week and have advised the contractor to erect better illumination.
