Joint Christmas Party Held by Rebekah and Odd Fellow Lodges

A joint Christmas party will be held by the Torrance Rebekah Lodge and Trio Odd Fellows Lodge, Dec. 17, in the Torrance Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo Ave.

There will be a pot luck dinner at 6:30 p.m. followed by a children's program and a visit from Santa Claus.

At the Dec. 10 meeting of the Rebekahs the following officers were elected: Noble Grand, Shirley Leetz; Vice-Grand, Freida Shaffer; Recording Secretary, Miss Pauline Greer; Financial Secretary, Mrs. Dorothy Walling; Treasurer, Mrs. Ann Collins and three-year trustee, Mrs. Pearl Greer. The appointive officers will be announced at a later date.

The installation of the officers will be held on Jan. 28 at the Masonic Temple with Mrs. Emily Lind and staff of the Gold Crest Lodge as the installation team.

The highlight of the evening was a visit from Mrs. Lind for the purpose of hearing the ritualistic work given by the Noble and the Vice Grand elect. Other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Seiberg of San Pedro and Mr. and Mrs. Ballard of La Mesa.

The Noble Grand, Mrs. Edna Ferrin appointed Mr. and Mrs. Walter Milburn, Mrs. Stelma Norris and Mrs. Belva Brase for the December and January sick committee.

The next regular meeting will be Jan. 14.

Board Yule Party Sponsored by Madrona PTA

The annual Christmas party of the Madrona PTA board and teachers was held at the home of Mrs. J. W. Cassidy recently. St. Nick himself was the highlight of the evening with a surprise gift for everyone. Christmas corsages were presented and games played.

Mrs. Robert Hagenbough presided over the meeting with Mmes. A Turner, M. Bruce R. Stewart, J. H. Brady, K. Davis and M. Momo serving as co-hostesses.

Mothers to Be Feted at Hospital Tea

A Maternity Tea was held for 37 expectant mothers at Riviera Hospital on Dec. 11 from 2 to 4 p.m. The ladies were introduced to the maternity nurses at the tea.

The tea table was highlighted by a Christmas Tree ornamented with little baby boy and girl angels. The spirit of Christmas was also carried out by colorful petite-fours, cookies and sherbets.

Mrs. Ann Canavella of 4920 McAfee Rd., the head of the Maternity Department, introduced the ladies to the roll of motherhood with a tour of the Obstetrical Wing and with films on child delivery and care.

The Riviera Hospital holds Maternity Teas the second Thursday of every month.

Harbor City PTA, Yule Party Held

The Harbor City PTA held its Christmas meeting Dec. 9 under the direction of Kenneth Dalton. The Rev. Howard Resine of the Wayside Methodist Church gave an inspirational message entitled, "Renew Your Christmas Spirit." Mrs. James Triffon, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Gerie Armbruster, home service director, Southern Counties Gas Co.
