

M. L. ROOT

G. P. Veteran Marks 30 Years with Company

M. L. (Mike) Root, Los Angeles, marks 30 years of service with General Petroleum Corporation this month. Root was first employed in 1928 as a clerk. In 1946 he became assistant to the manager of the engineering department at Vernon and in 1949 was appointed construction engineer at the Torrance refinery. In 1953 Root was transferred to Ferndale, Washington, and served as construction engineer while the company's Mobilgas refinery was being built there. In 1955 he returned to the Torrance refinery as assistant manager of the engineering department and in 1957 became assistant manager, maintenance.
