Ken Miller Opens Torrance Office

A Torrance branch office was opened today by Ken Miller, president of the Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors.

Miller, who has been in the real estate business in Lomita at 1955 Pacific Coast Highway, announced that he has opened his Torrance office at 2325 Torrance Blvd., where he will be assisted by Charles Mumford and Don L. Houston, as members of his sales staff.

Miller, who was born in Torrance in 1922, when the city had a population of 800, said he will specialize in residential and commercial real estate.

Opening of the new branch will give him a better opportunity to serve the Torrance-Lomita area. He has been in the real estate business for eight years, and is a member of the Torrance Kiwanis Club.

Miller is married and he and his wife, Judy, have three children, Jimmy, 10, Cathy 5, and Randy, 2.

WRITING CONTEST

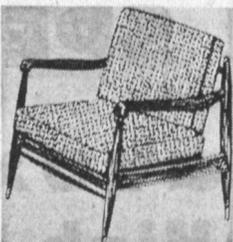

Torrance writers were invited this week to submit manuscripts to a new short story contest for Southern California residents being launched by L.A. Magazine. A prize of $100 in books will be awarded by Campbell's Bookstores and by Books in Review to the winner.
