

NEW MEAT DEPARTMENT—Completely remodeled new meat department at Farmer Boys Market, Carson and Figueroa St., is being launched with grand opening sale by new owners. Manager Joe Asher will offer expert butcher service, while Frank De Saro, owner of the grocery and produce department, is joining the sale with special bargains throughout the store starting today. Insets show De Saro, left, and Asher.

Torrance and Hermosa Merge Church Groups

Members of both Torrance and Hermosa Beach Religious Science Church are merging to form the South Bay Religious Science Church. Present meetings will be held in the Woman's Club House, 77 W. 17th St. in Hermosa Beach with the Religious Science Center located at 87 W. 14th St., Hermosa Beach. A building committee has been appointed to locate larger quarters. Reverend Ted Tomersa is now at the Religious Science Center in Hermosa Beach on Tuesdays and Thursdays. The mid-week service is also held Thursday evenings in the Center at 87 W. 14th St.

Southwest Park to Elect New Officers Soon

New officers of the Southwest Park Civic Association will be elected at the Feb. 3 meeting of the organization, President R. P. (Pat) Hogue announced. Beginning in March, the regular membership meetings will be held on the first Monday of the month. Mrs. Jane Hogue announced that to date only one-third of the required signatures have been obtained for street lighting petitions. She pointed out that streets that have 60 per cent of the property owners signed up, will be able to get street lights without having to wait for other streets in the area. Teenage dances will be held on the second Friday of each

Talented Alumni Wanted for Annual Program

Committee chairmen are now making plans for Leuzinger High School's annual alumni celebration, to be held May 22nd at the school. Chairmen of the Alumni Day program, Mrs. Beverly Stinnett and Mrs. Gerry Bradberry, class of '53, are looking for talented alumni to help with the entertainment. Those interested may call Mrs. Stinnett at OS. 5-5042. Editors of the Alumni News will be Mrs. Janice Stellino, class of '52, and Miss Irene Robles, class of '56. Any alumnus with news for the paper may call Mrs. Stellino at OS. 6-8037.

Chamber Receives Award

Torrance Chamber of Commerce was one of five California Chambers receiving a top national award.

Arch N. Booth, executive vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, announced that the Torrance Chamber received the "Citation for All-Around Achievement in Organizational Activities in 1958."

The honor will allow the recipients to be judged in the final awards competition of the U. S. Chamber next month.

Booth said, "This Award is in itself a great compliment to the integrity of your organization. Moreover, it is an expression of excellent leadership. The result-

YMCA Week to Be Observed Here

Ben Smith, chairman of the Torrance YMCA, announced that Jan. 18-25 has been designated YMCA Week throughout the nation. During this time the purpose and program of the YMCA will be interpreted to the community and special activities held at the Y. Torrance Churches will make special note of the Y on January 18, the official YMCA Sunday in the Church.

The feature program at the local Y will be the Campers' Reunion on Wednesday, Jan. 21.

Over 400 invitations have been sent to former campers inviting them to come out and renew their friendships made at camp. A typical Campfire type program with skits, songs, and stories will be the highlight of the evening. In addition, slides and movies of past camps will be shown.

On Saturday, January 24 the Teen Canteen, co-sponsored with the Junior Woman's Club will hold its second dance of the year. All teen-agers in the area are invited to attend the dance from 8-12.

Graduate Party Subject of PTA Board Meeting

The Mayflower Ballroom, Inglewood, has been chosen as the site of this year's Torrance High School all-night graduation party.

At its meeting Jan. 5, the PTA executive board approved the choice following a report presented by Gordon Johnston, student activities advisor.

A donation of $50 on behalf of the PTA was given to the Graduation Party Fund.

A series of parent-education meetings will be scheduled for the purpose of explaining various aspects of the school programs. With the help of Leonard Lifton, acting principal, Mrs. Victor Hunt, parent education chairman, will set up the program.

The board voted to support a variety show planned by the Torrance Council, PTA on behalf of the Milk and Hot Lunch Fund. Reports were given by Mrs. P. M. Crossman, magazine chairman, for the ways and means committee and by Mrs. Charles Robinson, magazine chairman. Mrs. Isabelle Kelly, membership chairman, reported that, to this date, Torrance High School PTA has a membership of 456. The next board meeting will be Feb. 5.

Driver Held for Trial

Kenneth Roger Thomas, 27, was ordered held for trial Jan. 30, on manslaughter and felony drunk driving charges.

He will be arraigned Jan. 30, on charges arising out of the death of Mrs. Manola Thomas, one of his passengers, who was killed when his car struck a power pole wire Jan. 2.
