

Torrance Club Women Take a Peek Inside New Broadway

DELIGHTED WITH THEIR chance to take a peek at the interior of the new Broadway Del Amo before the Champagne Preview opening, members of the Torrance Junior Women's Club chat with William Belding, manager of the Broadway Del Amo and assistant William Clark as they admire the furnishings of the Women's Salon on the second floor. From left, Mrs. John Mallory, Belding, Mrs. J. G. Louvier, Clark, standing and seated in chair, Mrs. D. E. Moore.

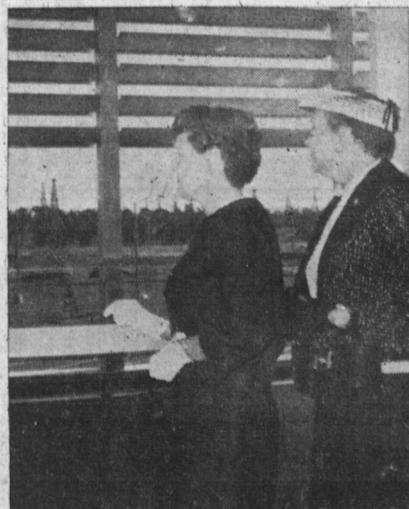

A MODERN MURAL ADORNING THE WALLS of the coffee shop is admired by, from left, Mmes. Alan S. Moore, Junior Women's Club, Andrew Acampora and Sid Gans of the Woman's Club. They found the pleasant coffee shop lacking only in coffee.

THE CALM EXTERIOR of the Broadway Del Amo, Hawthorne and Sepulveda Blvds., hides the bustling activity going on inside. Due to the short time left before the Charity Preview Opening, not all women's clubs have received ticket invitations, but the Broadway extends its welcome and promises there will be tickets available for every member of a local woman's club at the door Feb. 15 at 8 p.m.

WOMEN'S FEATURES SECTION

Mary Neth, Women's Editor, FA 8-2345

A VIEW from the Terrace adjoining the coffee shop is enjoyed by Mrs. Louis Ballard and Mrs. Don Wolf of the Torrance Woman's Club, who agreed that the spacious modern store will be a shoppers' paradise.

RESTING SOME VERY weary feet, Mrs. Leonard Schulvitz, seated, exchanges notes with Mrs. Howard Altermatt on what they plan to wear for the gala evening of Feb. 15, when all local women's clubs are invited to attend the Champagne Preview and fashion show. Both are members of the Women's Club.

IT'S UP TO THE FLOORS above smile Torrance Woman's Club members as they begin a tour of the Broadway's interior. Going up are Mmes. Don Wolf, Alan S. Moore, Louis Ballard and Andrew Acampora. With the escalators in working order and the store completed but for finishing touches, everything is in good order for the Charity Preview, they report.