

New Court House to Be Occupied Next Tuesday

Saturday will mark moving day for the Torrance Municipal Court. The court will be moved from the old city hall at Cravens and El Prado where it has been operating the past year, to a spacious new building in the civic center. Judge Otto B. Willett will hold court in the new $300,000 building Tuesday when the furnishings will be completely moved in. Dedication of the new structure will be held March 9.

Flo's Fashions for Women Holds Grand Opening Here This Week

Grand opening of Flo's Fashions for Women is being held this week. The new store located at 1307 Post Ave. will be an answer to all lovers of chic sportswear.

Suits by Handmaker, and dresses by Jeanne Juniors, Elsie Eberly and Jolian Beller to name only a few will be featured.

With the accent on California living the store's choice of gay, smart and stylish sportswear, an all season must, will boost the wardrobe of every woman.

Prices will range from a low, low $9.95 to $35 for stylish suits, Party dresses accessories and sweaters along with lounge apparel will also be featured.

Florence McClung, manager, owner of the store formerly managed the Sport Shop, 1112 Crenshaw. She is not new to the fashion business having successfully operated the other store for a year before moving downtown this week.

During the grand opening a bonus gift of free hosiery will be given with any purchase of $5 or more.

FACULTY DAY

Pomona College alumni in the Torrance area have been invited to spend "A Day With the Faculty" on the Pomona campus here Sunday, Feb. 22.

Times' Reporter Booked for Dianas Speak

Charles Hillinger, reporter and feature writer for the Los Angeles Times was guest speaker Feb. 16 at 8 p.m. when Redondo Beach Dianas, Junior Women's Club of Marina District, C.F.W.C., entertain their senior club at the clubhouse, 400 South Broadway, Redondo Beach.

Hillinger will show motion pictures and lecture about the Hawaiian Islands.

He is the author of the book, "The California Islands," recently published by Academy Publishers of Los Angeles. He was born and raised in Chicago. Rev. Plies Honored

Rev. Marion Plies was feted to a surprise birthday banquet by the faculty and staff of the Harbor City Christian School recently at Huffie's Cafeteria in Long Beach.

Rev. John Kirkpatrick presented sister Plies with an honorary degree, Doctor of Theology, given her by "The Living Way Bible College" of Tulsa.

THE ARTIST EXPLAINS—Students at Torrance High School got first-hand explanations of the meaning of a number of paintings this week, as Larry Macaray, art teacher, played tape-recorded interviews with the artists themselves. Here Carol Surber, Bill McDonald and Macaray look over one of the paintings.

She has worked for 10 years in Christian Education and is founder of the Harbor City Christian School.

Theater Bus Party Set by Rec. Department

Another of the popular "theater bus" parties is being organized to see a staging of the "Magnificent Yankee," according to the Torrance Recreation department.

A bus will leave the City Hall parking lot at 3031 Torrance Blvd. at 7:15 p.m. Feb. 27 and will travel to the Pasadena Playhouse for a performance of the play highlighting the career of the late Supreme Court Chief Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes.

Reservations for the trip may be made at the Recreation Department office, 3031 Torrance Blvd. or by calling FA 8-4108. Total cost is $2.50 per person for both admission and transportation. Feb. 20 is the deadline for making reservations.

LENTEN SERVICE

Ascension Lutheran Church, 18002 South Prairie, Torrance, will hold their third Lenten worship Feb. 25 at 7:30 p.m. The topic will be "You Were There When He Was Accused," delivered by the Rev. Lloyd C. Warneke, pastor of Ascension.
