

Walteria PTA Awards Honors for Service to the Community at Meet

In recognition of their service to the community, Mrs. Loring Bigelow and William Addington were recipients of the Honorary Life Memberships presented by the Walteria PTA at the recent general meeting.

Mrs. Bigelow, active in many community projects, has been the organizer and director of the Campfire Girls in this community. She has served as president of the Walteria Business Women's Club, of which she is a charter member. A member of the Walteria PTA Board for four years she has served in the capacities of Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer. With all her activities she still finds time to devote to her family of three children.

Addington has served actively with the Boy Scouts. He was a committeeman, award chairman, and Scoutmaster of Cub Pack 240C, co-leader of Boy Scout troop 240, and is now Area Commissioner for the Boy Scouts. He was selected for the International Wood Badge Boy Scout training course, is a member of the Walteria Business Men's Club Board, and has been active in Little League and PTA.

Thirteen past presidents were present to receive attractive planters in recognition of their past service. The presidents spanned the period from 1927-29 represented by Mrs. C. S. Edmundson, to Mrs. J. J. Lawlor, 1957-57. The present president, Mrs. Cass Russak was also present with a planter.

The Casmer School Mother Singers sang two selections, "Old Fashioned Garden" and "Lord's Prayer."
