Coed Mary Radin New Sorority Sweetheart

Mary Radin, Harbor College coed, was announced as the new Sweetheart of Theta Xi at the first dance of the semester, the "get-acquainted" dance, held on campus Friday.

Richard Cornwall, president of Theta Xi Omega Fraternity, opened the envelope containing the name of the title winner, kept secret until that moment, and presented her with a bouquet of roses and the traditional gold sweetheart bracelet bearing the fraternity emblem.

Miss Radin, 18, of 459 W. 21st St., San Pedro, was chosen from a group of twenty-two candidates for the title by vote of the members of the fraternity. She is a Liberal Arts major at the college.

Other contestants for the honor were Renee Courtois, Diane Escobar, Judy Faulkner, Diane Kennedy, Karen Gould, Pat McWhorter, Rosalie Silva, Maureen Oldaker, Frances Grey, Pat Flynn, Sue Bistolas, Cheryl Edwards, Linda McCullough, Judy Kellogg, Joan Martin, Carol Thomas, Sharon Gossett, Barbara Kidwell, Linda Spahn, Sharon Smalley, and Marsha Tipich.

In carrying out the duties of her new office, Miss Radin will participate in fraternity activities during the semester, among which is the responsibility for campus drives and collections for community charities.

Theta Xi is the oldest fraternity on the Harbor campus and for several semesters has won the Wilmington Rotary Club plaque for being the outstanding restrictive club at the local college.

Members of the Delta Tau Delta Chapter of the Delphian Society will meet March 19 at the Smith's Fish Shanty in Waltheria for a discussion on "The Mental Health Movement." "Marriage and Divorce" was the subject of the recent meeting of the series.

A "Get-Acquainted" coffee was held at the home of Mrs. Donald C. Beery, secretary, 4540 Santa Bella Road, Rolling Hills at the groups last meeting of February.

Mrs. Merril L. Shepard was in charge of decorations Mrs. Elver White of Wilmington was general chairman of the event, with Guild members Mmes. William Myerscough, Jr., Elma Boyce, Tina Martin, Van Lisman, E. A. Johansen, G. F. Lorge, and Shepard, as helpers for kitchen and refreshments.

The second Torrance Polio Clinic, held Feb. 24, was another success, announces Mrs. R. W. Mosher, president of Delta Gamma Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha International Sorority, one of the sponsoring organizations. Working with Delta Gamma were Eta Mu, Eta Lambda and Eta Kappa chapters.

Fourteen hundred fifty one shots were given and a total of $470 was donated to the March of Dimes by the sponsors.

Members of the Bay Harbor Osteopathic Society gave of their time to administer the shots. They were Doctors Robert Norcross, Fred Chasan, Don Cortum, Harold Drapkin, George Y. Lee and C. R. Barnes. Working with them were Registered Nurses Lenora Anderson and Katherine Kelly.

A third clinic will be given in October. Announcement of the exact date will be made in the local newspapers.

Members of the Las Vegas Women's Club.

BACKSTAGE ASSISTANCE is given by, from left, Mrs. John R. Doyle, as she and Mrs. Robert Hunt prepare to model the latest in spring and summer swim wear. The beach wear fashion show was held at the Plush Horse recently by members of the Las Vegas Women's Club.

"LADY KILLERS"—a one-act play, will highlight the March 18 Pot Luck luncheon and business meeting of the Torrance Woman's Club. From left, Mmes. H. F. Heinlein, R. Sandstrom, A. Acampora, J. A. Eisenbrandt, Leo Hayes and William Crooker take part in a rehearsal of the tea scene.

Actresses Polish Up Roles for 'Lady Killers'

Behind the closed doors of the Torrance Woman's club house a group of serious thespians are hard at work polishing up the roles for the production of a one-act farce entitled "Lady Killers."

The comedy will be presented at the March 18 pot-luck luncheon meeting of the club. The cast includes actresses: Mmes. H. F. Heinlein, Andrew Acampora, Joe Eisenbrandt, Rufus Sandstrom, W. C. Crooker and Naomi Hayes.

Mmes. R. C. Romerson and Leonchus Stamps are in charge of the production.

Mrs. R. E. Shaw will be in charge of the curtain and should prompting be needed Mrs. Dean Sears will be on hand for assistance.

Programs will be made by Mmes. Allen Pyeat, J. P. Montague and R. E. Shaw.

Miss Eva Henderson of Pacific Palisades, Marina District Drama Chairman, will be the club's guest for the luncheon and program.
