

Neighbors' Easter Bazaar Held Tuesday

Neighbors held their pre-Easter bazaar at the Woman's Club-house, 1422 Engracia Ave., Tuesday. The doors were opened to the public at 1:30 p.m. with booths of fancy work, baked goods and a What-Not table.

Following the bazaar there was a public card party in the evening with prizes for high scores. A door prize was also given.

Those working on the bazaar were Mmes. Mary Baker and Sophia Duncan. Baked goods, Mmes. Cora Hill and Lillian Nelson and the What-Not table was run by Mrs. Juanita McNew and Mrs. Angeline Disario.

At a recent meeting of the Oracle, Mrs. Mary Chiara, appointed Mmes. Juanita McNew, Vertie Grimm and Cordie White as the hostesses for the month of April. Mmes. Myra Snow and Lillian Nelson have been asked to serve on the sick committee for the coming month.

Mrs. Angeline Disario was elected to serve as vice-oracle in place of Mrs. Margaret Stevens, who resigned, and Mrs. Marie Koshak was appointed to fill the station of Unselfishness for the unexpired term of Mrs. Dorothy Brorw. Mrs. Ruth Carland was appointed as Faith to take the station of Faith caused by the resignation of Mrs. Disario. Mrs. Margaret Stevens acted as the installing officer and Mrs. Sophia Duncan was the Ceremonial Marshal for the occasion.

Plans are being made to attend the Convention of Caps to be held in Inglewood April 1, by many of the members.

RECOVERING

Mrs. Riley Balerjack of 2152 Brian Ave. is recuperating at her home following a fall.

Spring Styles for Easter

A FAMILY AFFAIR in tones of pale blue and beige sets the scene for Easter Sunday. Mrs. Allen Hofferber, 1624 Iris, poses with Scott, 4, and Lisa Beth, 2, in the study of their home. Mrs. Hofferber's beige linen sheath is set off with a matching knit sweater. Scott weels quite grown up in beige flannels and brown sweater while Lisa Beth tops off her blue cotton dress and matching cummerbund with a saucy white bonnet.

ALL DRESSED UP in her Easter finery, little Melissa Ann Tompkins' 21 months and her mother, the wife of Dr. Donald R. Tompkins, 1753 Cabrillo Ave. pose at the door of the First Lutheran Church. Melissa and her mother have chosen the new polka dot look for their Spring ensembles. Melissa dresses up her pale blue polka dot on white organza with matching white gloves, purse and hat. Mrs. Tompkins wears a white hat and patent bag and shoes.

OFF TO CHURCH—Mrs. Kenneth Boulter, 1721 Hickory Ave., and son Peter, age 4 1/2, and daughter Belinda, 7 1/2, make a smart threesome as they stand at the door of their home. Mrs. Boulter wears a smart spring suit and a flowered straw hat. Peter proves that even little boys should be clothes conscious in his suit with monogrammed pocket. Belinda delights in carrying a clever spring parasol purse to complete her very pretty Easter outfit.

LOMITA MAN ROBBED

While he was smoking his cigarette while parked at 1739 Lomita Blvd., John Edward Anderson, 41, was robbed at gun point by a lone bandit he told deputy sheriffs Monday. The victim said the holdupman took $315 in cash and stripped him of his $100 wrist watch after shoving a revolver through the window of his car.

Weymouth, Zizick are United in Marriage

A wedding at the Wayfarers Chapel Saturday united Miss Linda Weymouth, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Weymouth, 2223 Cabrillo Ave., and Dick Zizick, 16727 Crenshaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Zizick of Oxnard.

Rev. Knox performed the double-ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Melvin Wagers.

For her wedding, the bride wore a floor-length Chantilly lace gown featuring a bodice outlined with sequins and pearls. Her fingertip veil was caught by a pearl-studded crown. She carried a white bridal bouquet of orchids and carnations.

As maid of honor, Miss Kathy Colish wore a blue chiffon ballerina-length dress and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Bridesmaids, Misses Judith Weister and Margaret McMillan, wore identical gowns of pink, with lace boleros and ballerina-length net skirts. Their bouquets were of contrasting blue carnations.

Completing the wedding party, Donald Zizick served as the best man with Ronald Havis and Mike Velasques acting as ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception and dinner for 20 guests were held at the Ivy Room in Compton.

The bride attended Torrance High School. The bridegroom is a graduate of Lane School of Technology, Chicago, and served in the U. S. Marine Corps at Camp Pendleton. He is employed as a draftsman for Blake-man Brothers in Los Angeles.

The newlyweds will make their home at 16727 Crenshaw, following their honeymoon in Las Vegas.

Swim Trip Planned

A car pool at the Torrance YWCA will proceed a trek to the "Y" swimming pool in Long Beach March 31.

Girls wishing to go may contact Ann Gorman at the "Y." A fee of 50 cents will cover the dip, with bathing suits, caps and towels available for rental.
