Letters to the Editor...

To the Editor:
We are very honored and grateful for the honor that the city of Torrance has bestowed upon the Turkish women and especially upon the women of Konya. It is very wonderful that you have chosen the city of Konya.

The Turkish women have the right to vote and all the other rights of a full citizen, just as the women of the United States have. She is an ideal housewife and also finds time to devote to social work and charities. Some of her work and activities include nursing and care of crippled children. The United Women and the Red Cross and charities for the blind.

If you would like to have more information about our social and charitable activities we would be very happy to give you more complete details.

The Konya United Womens Club send their kind regards and thanks to the city of Torrance and hope that you will write to us again. All our love goes to our sister city of TORRANCE, California.

Best regards,
The United Womens Club
Konya, Turkey

presented free to the public each year. This year, for lack of interest from garden clubs, we are told that there will be no Hobby Show. In the directory of the City of Torrance, there are eight garden clubs and any number of civic organizations. Surely, in a city of this size, there must be some organization that would be interested in keeping the Flower, Arts and Hobby Show a yearly event.

For the past three years, there has been a drop in the number of displays and also in attendance due to the date of the event being slated at the same time as the Long Beach Hobby Show. There are many exhibitors who would participate in the Torrance show had it not been held on the same weekend as the other show.

With a bit of civic interest from organizations and a date that does not conflict with that of other shows, there is no reason why Torrance should not be able to continue to present to the public this yearly display of the work of the many hobbyists of this part of the county. The publicity gained through wide spread newspaper writeups and pictures bring people into Torrance from all over the South Bay and Harbor areas. The Flower, Arts and Hobby Show is, and has always been a very good show, and it is a shame to let it die for lack of interest and apathy on the part of civic organizations.

Sincerely yours,
(Signed) Bertha L. Hutchison

To the Editor:

I have been watching with great interest the actions of the City Council and city manager in regards to the city employees working outside jobs.

Maybe they would like to explain the hiring of a retired man, on a good pension, from another city, in the position as director of public works. True enough he has just been replaced, but I see by the story in your paper another job as building inspector for major projects has been created for him.

Why not reduce the ranks of our unemployed by one more and give this to a man who is not on a pension?

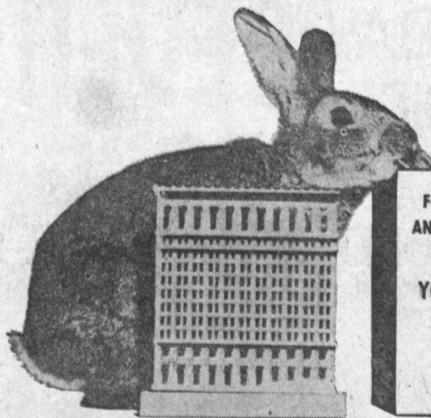

Sincerely,
To the Editor.

We wish to thank you and your associates for the excellent coverage afforded our recent contract negotiations with the Pacific Telephone Company.

Only through media such as the press are we able to gain public recognition in our dealings with the worlds largest and richest corporation.

Your timely reporting and eager cooperation have strengthened our respect and appreciation for your organization. May this pleasant association continue through years to come, as it is our belief that such associations build stronger and more durable communities.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) James Trent,
