Range Sold Fast
with Torrance Press Want Ad

Mrs. Ray Foster of 17202 Ermanita Ave. was really cooking with gas when she decided to sell her kitchen range through a Torrance Press classified ad. She said that she sold the 42-inch gas range to the first party that called about it after the want ad appeared in Thursday's issue of the Torrance Press. If you have something to sell, buy or rent, call a court-accepted at public meeting, formed a residents' action committee to find out why it had been cut and to take action to get it back. They pointed out that they are not protesting the industry's move to the city, instead they welcomed it, but 100 feet south of Monterey as shown by the firm's plans originally filed with the Planning Commission. Committee leaders said the existing plan possibly was cheaper now for industry, but the city would lose in time because of "deterioration and depreciation of values and desirability of the properties adjacent to Monterey St."

(Continued from page 1) ing by R. C. Malton Co. of Detroit of 30 acres south of Monterey, where they will locate a steel mill. The mill's office will be 50 feet from Monterey with executive and customer parking in front. Home owners, having previously heard the 100-foot offered and teous Torrance Press ad-taker at FA 8-2345 and let her assist you with fast results.

Model Congress at TEAC Meet

Torrance Education Advisory Committee members will hear "Democracy in Action" and "School Finances" at their meeting next Monday noon in the Torrance YWCA. The TEAC members will see eighth graders from the Riviera Elementary School "Model Congress" debate and pass bills, just like the U. S. Congress in Washington. Each year, students in Mrs. Irma Wilson's and Ronald Hall's classes join for a mock political convention and election of national officers.
