

Student Production of Own Plays Presented at Festival

The Torrance High School Original One-Act Play Festival will be held in the High School Auditorium April 24 at 8 p. m. Three one-act plays written by Torrance High School students will be presented. They are "Decisive Moments" by Tony Carrillo, "They Shall Rise" by Walter Janoff, and "Just Like Irving" by Sally Mason.

"Decisive Moments" is a tense drama about the problems of an internal specialist. The situations involved include those at work and those at home. Tony Beretolet is cast in the role of the doctor and Sharon Clark portrays his wife. Tony Carrillo and Jerene Tussey are cast in other roles.

A mystery comedy, "Just Like Irving," deals with the solution of a murder with many humorous incidents. The main character is played by Pat King. Supporting her are Joyce Wayt, Noel Shire, Ken Robertson, Mary Margaret Blount, Ken Helphand and Manford Mainer.

"They Shall Rise" is a serious drama built around the school life of two boys who are impressed with their own importance. The two boys are played by Jim White and Russ O'Hare. The other roles are played by Carol Surber, Diane Hunter, Walter Janoff, Phil Juvet, Stewart Buckalew and Kerry Sexton.

A fourth play, "Education of Rutherford Pygmalion," written by Lynn Keller, was selected to be presented at a student body assembly. This play is a situation comedy, centering around an English exchange student who stays with the Doe family. The performers in this play are Bill Tilley, Bill Shieman, Carol Porterfield and Bill Miller.

All drivers should keep pace with traffic, advises the Automobile Club of Southern California.

WINNING SCRIBES—Preparing for the presentation of their work on the Torrance High School One-Act Play Festival, April 24, are four winning writers.
