The Frank Babcock Combined Circus and Shows opened in Walteria yesterday in the parking lot behind Owl-Rexall and Food Giant Market, Pacific Coast Hwy. and Hawthorne Blvd. It is sponsored by the Walteria Shopping Center Merchants' Association. The circus is here through Sunday, April 19.
The midway features 15 different thrill-packed rides for children, also maintaining a kiddie circus. Besides Ruth, the 40-year-old performing elephant, the circus highlights trained ponies, dogs, and a tightrope act during 45-minute shows daily at 2:30, 7 and 9 p.m., with an extra show at 10:30 Saturday morning, April 18. The Kiddy Circus is free to the young and old.
The Circus and Show was brought to Walteria by the following participating merchants: Food Giant Market, Owl-Rexall, Tine's Styles for Men and Boys, White's Variety Store, A-1 Photo-First Western Bank, Minty's Women's Wear, Polly's Donuts, Pat's Sport and Ski Shop, Crest Cleaners, Style Center Beauty Shop, Vito Shoe Repair and Walteria Launderette.
Discount tickets will be given to everyone by the above merchants. With the ticket and 10 cents, children will be able to ride on the 25 cent rides. A gigantic sale by all the merchants in the shopping center is in progress during the length of the show.
