Chamber Honors Three New Firms at April Meet

Three new Torrance Industrial firms will be honored at "Salute to New Industries" Breakfast Meeting of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce April 28 at the American Legion Hall, 1199 Border Ave. The firms to be honored include Columbia Van Lines, Belond Moller Company and Dayton Rubber Company. President Fred W. Mill said these firms represent solid medium industry and their coming to Torrance will mean much to the community's residential and commercial growth, in addition to the economic advantages. Co-Chairmen R. S. Pyle and Merton Stiles said that the coffee pot would be "on" for early arrivals at the function. Saving starts at 7:20 a.m. and an absolute deadline for its completion is 8:30 a.m., it was added.

NEW APPOINTEES

Two mid-semester appointees assumed student offices this week, on the El Camino College campus. Filling the recently-vacated offices of commissioner of rallies and Associated Men Student president are Martin Steffire and Wes Love, respectively.

Optical Firm Now Open at Torrance Site

The 18th Superior Optical Co. store in Southern California has opened its doors at 4010 Sepulveda Blvd. in Torrance. Dispensing opticians to the medical eye doctor, Superior offers a complete eyewear prescription service, which includes grinding lenses in its own laboratory, fitting eyeframes to the customer and periodical alignment of eyewear so as to insure best possible vision. More than 670 different eyeframe styles are available for easy selection at Superior's Fashion Eyeframe Bar. Personnel at Superior are especially trained in the theory of cosmetic eyewear to flatter the individual features and harmonize with the wardrobe. The Torrance store, managed by Roland Manis, dispensing optician, is beautifully appointed and provides a pleasant atmosphere for the leisurely selection of fashion-right eyewear. Manis invites residents of the southwest communities to visit the newest Superior Optical Co. store for an eyewear

Successful Youth Week Ends at Baptist Church

Youth Week ended for Narbonne Ave. Baptist Church of Lomita last Sunday. More than 100 offices had been filled by the youth of the church during the week with many favorable comments. A group of high school students will attend High School Day at California Baptist College April 17. This is an annual affair to acquaint the potential college students with life on the Christian college campus. Edwin T. Isbell, the church minister of music and education, is leading the music in a revival in the First Southern Baptist Church of Modesto. Isbell will be in Modesto through April 26.

Torrance Press Photo Wins National Acclaim for Photog

Two El Camino College photographers received national acclaim this week for their entries in a contest that attracted 910 pictures from 22 states, Washington, D.C. and Canada. Ray Duerloo of WALTERIA and Jess Amado Jr., the only winners representing the nation's two-year colleges, put El Camino in the winner's row. National first place honors were accorded Duerloo for his news photography, "Speed Limit." He will get a set of the Encyclopaedia Britannica and a silver trophy as awards. The winning entry pictured a tragedy of an automobile grimly wrecked beside a traffic sign, and first appeared in the Torrance Press.

Both Duerloo and Amado received "in show" recognition for their work. Amado's "Portrait of a Cat" was among outstanding entries in the portrait-character class, while Duerloo's "Still Water" received honors in the pictorial division. Other California winners came from the University of California at Los Angeles, California Polytechnic College, Humboldt State College, and Chico State College.
