

"FLYING SAUCER" cookies are greeted with real enthusiasm by "space age" hep youngsters of Torrance. Mrs. Mollie Hoke, Torrance High School cafeteria employe, looks over a batch of the goodies just out of the oven.

Kids Cheer Space Age Flying Saucer Cookies

High school youngsters in Torrance are really hep to the Space Age, and they love the chewy "Flying Saucer" cookies served in local high school cafeterias.

School board members, parents and others have asked for the recipe after tasting the cookies, which are served daily in the Torrance and North High cafeterias. Nearly 1000 of the Space Age goodies are served daily.

The basic recipe calls for a small mountain of ingredients, enough to make 180 of the round discs. However, cafeteria workers have broken down the recipe to make 18 cookies, a more usable amount for the average home.

The recipe, as the homemaker could use it, is:

FLYING SAUCERS

(A Chewy Cookie)

Yield: 1 1/2 dozen 5" cookies.

- 1 1/2 cup shortening
- 2 1/4 cups sugar
- 2 eggs
- 1/4 cup honey
- 1/4 cup milk
- 3/4 cup all purpose flour (sifted)
- 1 1/2 tsp. baking soda
- 1 tsp. cinnamon
- 1 tsp. allspice
- 1/4 tsp. salt
- 1/2 cup raisins
- 3 cups rolled oats

Directions

1. Cream sugar and shortening thoroughly.
2. Beat in eggs. Add honey and blend well.
3. Sift flour with spices, baking soda and salt. Alternate with the milk—beginning and ending with the flour, when adding to the creamed mixture.

4. Fold in raisins and rolled oats.

5. Scoop out about one-third of batter for each cookie on a lightly oiled cookie sheet, allowing about four inches between cookies for spreading. Flatten to a 3/4 inch pat.

6. Bake at 350° for 20 minutes. For a chewy cookie, bake slightly underdone. For a crisp cookie, bake until just done.

7. Loosen from cookie sheet

Seaside Open House

Seaside PTA will meet April 28 at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria. After a short business meeting open house will be observed so that parents may have an opportunity to see the accomplishments of the students. Coffee will be served as usual, and during the coffee hour pies, cakes and other "goodies" will be on sale.

while still warm, but cool in pan.
