

KITS FOR KOREA—Janet Noone, sergeant-at-arms, Kathy Reed, president, and Mrs. Forrest Cato of the Phi Dels Club of the YWCA are shown putting together some of the school kits for Korean children.

Afghan Guests Visit Schulwitzes

A thanksgiving dinner featuring turkey and all the trimmings was served to two foreign guests by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Schulwitz, 22639 Draille Dr. recently.

The guests, Mrs. Homaria Hamidi, principal of the Malala girls school of Kabul, Afghanistan and Miss Marjiam Shan a home economics teacher at the Girl's Lycee Zarghuna, Kabul, were impressed by the American bird, the first Turkey either had tasted.

The two women, both who spoke fluent English, accompanied by their escort from Washington, Mrs. Lilli Skipsted, were on their way to San Francisco, the last stop on their 60 day tour of the United States.

Both expressed great interest in the American methods of teaching, and have visited many classrooms while here.

Fashion and Hat Show Seen at Crenshaw PTA

A fashion and hat show highlighted the April PTA meeting at Crenshaw Elementary School PTA.

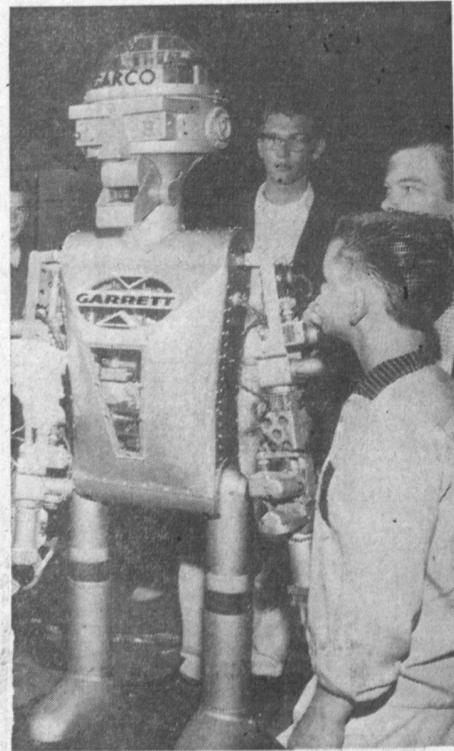

Students and parents participated in the fashion show wearing clothing they had made themselves. Decked out in their finest were Linda and Sandra Schmitz, Karen Robinson, Ellen Cobb, Gail Hatfield, Cheryl and Dianne Sturgart, Roxy Chapman, Patty and Irene Chatelle, Linda Steele, Connie Taggart, Alice Lisowski, Vivian Beriro, Marge Whitley, Adele Hock, Donna Hemphill, Frankie Ischauner, Adrienne Chalell, Mrs. Archie Smith, Mrs. Edward Hollyman, Mrs. D. Albert, Cheryl Lee Pettier, Mary Webster, Joyce Jones, Susan White and Charlene Smith.

Winning the contest for the most original hat was Linda Moser in her creation, an oil well, made mostly of wood and string. The most ridiculous award went to Mrs. Clint Chapman for her flat surfaced hat set like a table—with everything down to a loaf of bread on it.

New officers will be sent as delegates to the district convention April 17 in Santa Monica. Attending will be Mmes. Lonnie Mansker, president; Benjamin J. Hatfield, first vice president; Mark Kline, second vice president; G. E. Meseke, corresponding secretary; Edward Escovar, recording secretary; and R. B. Angcos, historian.

The annual May Day festival will be held May 1. All classes will participate and parents are invited.

The sixth grade room mothers served refreshments before the meeting with Mrs. Alvin Zar, juvenile protection chairman, featured speaker.

ROBOT—Scientific-minded students at North High School are keenly interested in the complex makeup of GARCO, the Garrett Corporation's mechanical man. GARCO made three appearances at the school's recent Science Day fair. The robot is actuated by aircraft components representative of the products made by Garrett's AiResearch Manufacturing division, which is planning to expand its operations to Torrance in the near future. Gary Rollo, seated behind GARCO, who normally operates him, is a resident of Torrance.

Rolling Hills Covenant Church Dedication Set

The first unit of the Rolling Hills Covenant church, located at 2221 Palos Verdes Dr. North Rolling Hills, will be dedicated at a public service May 3 at 3 p.m.

Construction began last September with the first service held on Palm Sunday.

The Rev. Joseph C. Danielson of Chicago, Ill., secretary of Home Missions, and the Rev. Gordon A. Nelson of Pasadena, superintendent of the California Conference of the Evangelical Covenant Church of America, will deliver the dedication message and prayer respectively.

The building is a two-story structure, all daylight basement, 13 Sunday school classrooms and a sanctuary seating 200. Rev. Allen W. Wickman is pastor.

Las Vecinas to Fete First of May

Las Vecinas will celebrate the first day of May with a Spring Dance at the Grand Ballroom of the new Thunderbird Hotel, announces Mrs. William D. Peterson, social chairman.

A buffet dinner will be served members and guests, who will dance to the music of Roy Clark's orchestra. Reservations can be obtained by calling Mmes. Jay B. Madden or Donald Arndt.

Mrs. Curt Martins, chairman of invitations and decorations, has on her committee Mmes. James Jordan, Hugh Sutherland, Charles

Fellowship Meeting

Juvenile delinquency will be discussed by Lt. Gus Rethwisch of the Torrance Police Department when he addresses the Torrance-Lomita Council of United Church Women at their May Fellowship Day meeting titled "How Much Is Enough?" tomorrow at 1 p.m.

A business meeting will take place at 10:30 a.m. the Evangelical United Brethren Church, Arlington and Marcelina Sts. A fellowship luncheon will follow at 12.

Mrs. E. J. Hosling, chairman, is in charge of arrangements. Johnson, Bernard Beard and Harry Walker Jr.

SMILING APPROVAL is given by Mrs. Walter Holloway, Los Cancioneros concert chairman, as she looks over the preliminary script submitted by Ray Wallace, left, and Bob Holmes for the choral group's ninth annual concert to be held in May.

First Kindergarten Roundup Dates

Five Torrance elementary schools—Crenshaw, Fern-Greenwood, Flavian, Steele, and Torrance Elementary—will hold "round-ups" of next year's kindergarteners during the next week.

The schools are seeking the names of all kindergarteners who will start school next September so an accurate count can be obtained. Children who will be five years old on or before Dec. 2, 1959, are eligible. Proof of birth date must be brought. Physical exams will be available for the children.

Round-ups are slated as follows:

- Crenshaw—April 30.
- Fern-Greenwood—April 30 and May 1.
- Flavian—Tuesday, May 5, 7, and 8; also May 28.
- Steele—May 5 and 6; also on May 12, June 2 and 5.
- Torrance Elementary—May 4, 6, and 7.

DANCE FESTIVAL

Haldale Avenue School will present their annual dance festival tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. This year the theme will be "Moods in Music." Each grade level in school will participate with a dance appropriate to the theme.

Mrs. Jeanne Hoyt and Jack Cowger are co-chairmen of this event. Mrs. Amanda Wilhelm, principal, will give the welcoming address.

Hamilton Elects PTA Officers

Officers for the newly organized Hamilton Elementary School, 2606 W. 182nd St., with 79 charter members, were elected at the recent April meeting in the school cafeteria.

Mrs. Myron Spaulding will serve as president assisted by Mmes. W. E. Inman, first vice president; William Wells, second vice president; Arthur Hanson, recording secretary; Clifford Brink, corresponding secretary; Dean Scoville, treasurer; Frank Anderson, auditor; Matt Franich, historian.

Meetings will be held the third Thursday of the month at the cafeteria.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Howard Rodick and her committee.

"AWAKE MINISTERS"

"Awake Ministers," a four-day assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses in Southern California is announced by Harold Dunham, presiding minister of the Torrance congregation for June 4-7 at the Del Mar Fairgrounds, San Diego.

"CHRISTIAN FAMILY"

Reverend William K. Schatz will speak on "The Christian Family" at Seaside Community Church, (E&R) United Church of Christ, May 3 and 10. Service begins at 10:45 a.m. Church school at 9:20.
