Students Win Management Scholarships

Senior students Rosalie Murray of North High School and Michael Mullen of Torrance High were 1959 winners of the National Supply Management Club's Essay Contest. Certificates and checks for $150 were presented to the winners Friday by Lyle Freckleton, Scholarship Chairman of the Club, at a lunch honoring the top students of 20 competing seniors.

Miss Murray chose the subject "What Does America Have to Give to the Underdeveloped Countries of the World?" as her theme. She is planning a career in Social Welfare after college.

Michael Mullen, an excellent student in science as well as an accomplished pianist wrote on the subject "Should Capital Punishment Be Abolished?" Both Miss Murray and Mullen have outstanding scholarship records at their respective high schools.

As winners of the National Supply Management Club awards, both students are now eligible and will compete in the Southern California Management Association Contest on May 22 at Roger Young Auditorium where $250 will be awarded to each of the boy and girl area winners.

New Members Greeted at Altar Society

New members were introduced and entertained at the April meeting of the Catholic Altar Society.

Get-acquainted games were played under supervision of Mrs. John Tweedy, assisted by members of the September Guild. Prizes were awarded to Mmes. Gerald Campbell, K. Brennan, Michael McMahon, Frank Zboyan, F. J. Angerer and T. B. McLaughlin. The grand prize was won by Mrs. J. L. Redding.

Electrical appliances donated by "It Could Be You" TV show were awarded to F. J. Matosky, A. W. O'Connor, M. Goettsch, Noel Morin and L. Derouin.

An arrangement of yellow and white tulips, iris and ranunculus centered the tea table. Mrs. Michael McMahon presided at the silver service. Refreshments and punch were served by Mrs. Joseph Cimore, with members of the March Guild assisting.

Mrs. T. B. McLaughlin was appointed publicity chairman to replace Mrs. C. G. Dean. Final plans were made for the society's semi-annual rummage sale May 8 and 9 at the Parish Hall, 1420 Cota Ave. Mrs. M. J. Boudreaux, general chairman, asked that donations be delivered to the hall as soon as possible so that sorting, cleaning and pricing may be completed before the opening date.

The next meeting will be held May 5 at 8 p. m. in the Parish Hall. Mrs. Gerald Loew and her guild will be hostesses.

Jones, Ruttman Duel Sunday

Troy Ruttman, 1952 Indianapolis winner, and Parnell Jones, the Southland's current speed king, will hook up in a long-awaited "Winner-take-all" match race series to highlight Ascot Stadium's program of late-model stock car races Sunday.

Officials posted a special purse to get them together for the special series of three 2-lap duels which will start the show at 2:30 p.m. As luck would have it, the only two previous engagements involving Jones and Ruttman at 50-lap and 100-lap distances have been indecisive as their mounts conked out. Jones wheels a 1959 Ford, Ruttman a 1958 Mercury,

Alpha Delta Pi's Hear Flower Arranging Talk

Mrs. Frances R. Chadwick spoke on "Flowers in the Home" at the April meeting of the Alpha Delta Pi's of the South Bay area, announced Mrs. John S. McKenna, program chairman. The group met at the home of Mrs. Charles Dutton, 1805 Oak Ave., Manhattan Beach, at 8 p. m.

Mrs. Chadwick, an owner of Chadwick Gardens, 1639 Ford Ave., Redondo Beach, showed unusual ways of displaying flowers. She used vases, baskets and artistic reproductions of museum pieces in the arrangements.

Following the demonstration, refreshments were served by co-hostesses Mmes. George Ott, and Charles Penny, nominations were made for executive officers. A formal nominating committee will be held before the May meeting, when the slate will be presented.

On the committee are Mrs. Dutton, president; Mrs. Joan Johnson, vice-president; Mrs. Joseph Mitchler, secretary; and two members to be selected at the April meeting.

A ways and means project is under way for obtaining a seventy-five cup coffee maker through the collection by members of M.J.B. coffeehand.

Riviera Hospital Accredited for Service Quality

Jack Saylin, administrator of Hospitals has formally accredited Physicians, the American College of Surgeons, the American Hospital Association, the American Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals, whose members are the American College of Medical Association, and the Canadian Medical Association, establishes standards to insure high quality of medical care in hospitals and their medical staffs. To become accredited by the Commission, hospitals must maintain a group of standards and practices to insure the safety and well-being of their patients. Dietary, medical records, pharmacy, clinical laboratory, radiology and medical library facilities of excellent quality are all essential for an accredited hospital.
