NEW LUXURY RESTAURANT—The Golden Arms, new restaurant and cocktail bar, is scheduled to open at 24650 Crenshaw Blvd. on Saturday. The beautiful new eating place will feature steaks, chops and sea food, all cooked to order. Entertainment and dancing will be offered nightly.

Name Winners of Baseball Queen Contest Here

There was no disinterest in beauty contests Saturday, when eight girls competed in the North Torrance Babe Ruth Miss Baseball contest at Guensers Park.

Selected as winners were Toni Mangiagli and Ginger Bryant following judging by Jeff Bell, Jim Bryden and Clarence Davis.

Competitors from various teams included Mary Ann Miller, Jean Nash, Val Sorenson, Sandy Bradbrook, Judy Hannah, and Myra McCartney.

The winners will compete in Saturday's "Miss Baseball" contest to be staged at the City Hall.

Golden Arms Restaurant Holds Opening on Crenshaw Blvd.

A fabulous, new restaurant and cocktail bar is opening in Torrance this Saturday, offering luxurious surroundings, excellent food, entertainment and dancing.

Owners, Frank and Jim Mungolo spared no expense planning and building this new restaurant. The impressive exterior is modern and rich-looking. The interior is spacious and luxurious.

Two fireplaces of imported Italian stone cast a warm glow in the dining room and the bar. Soft carpeting, interesting planting, and tasteful decoration all add to the plush atmosphere of the new eating place.

The food will be prepared by the Golden Arms' chef, who has been associated with Peppy's, the Apple Valley Inn, and the St.

Francis Hotel in San Francisco.

The Golden Arms will specialize in steaks, chops, and sea food, cooked to order, and offer a special merchant's lunch, too. The food will be prepared in the continental manner. Banquet rooms will be available for large groups.

Well known artists will furnish the entertainment and the music for dancing every night. For less formal fun, there will be entertainment at the piano bar, too.
