GETTING READY FOR SCHOOL—The opening of Lincoln Elementary School, 2418 W. 166th St., next Monday, means a lot of work this week for Torrance school employes, with mountains of supplies and furniture to get ready. District Opens Seventh New School Here During Past Year

For the seventh time in the past year, the Torrance Unified School District will open a new school Monday as children start moving into Lincoln Elementary School, 2418 W. 166th St.

Opening of Lincoln School, the 28th elementary school in Torrance, will eliminate double sessions at long-crowded Casimir School, 174th and Casimir Ave. There will be no double sessions for the present at Lincoln, where about 590 students are expected. However, additions to Lincoln are planned in anticipation of further growth in enrollment.

Principal Walter Buettgenbach will head a staff of 17 teachers, all of whom presently teach at Casimir. In most cases, the classes will be moved with their present teacher. Eighth graders will finish the year at Casimir.

Cafeteria facilities will not be ready for the opening of school, since the classroom facilities were rushed given greater priority. All children will be within walking distance of the new school.

Summer school classes will be held at Lincoln School, Buettgenbach reported.

The new school, built at a cost of $368,000, includes 13 classrooms, two kindergarten rooms, music and multipurpose buildings and an administration building.

Buettgenbach, 32, formerly served as vice principal at Casimir School, as well as Perry, Wood and Seaside Schools.

NEW RECRUITER—Chief Marlon Bradley has been assigned Torrance area recruiter for the Navy recruiting station, Gardena. A service veteran of 19 years, he is a member of Torrance American Legion post.

Officer training for the newly formed Y-Teen Clubs was held yesterday at the "Y." Kathy Reed, Flora Watson, Susan Saari, Penni Voien and Kendra McBride were in charge of the training and advising session.

Following the tips on officer-school, the girls spent the afternoon at the beach.
