Holy Trinity Fiesta to Have Valuable Prizes

Prizes valued in excess of $6000 will be awarded at the Holy Trinity Fiesta set for May 29, 30 and 31, it was announced today by Lt. Col. Leslie F. Summerfield, general chairman. A 1959 Pontiac Safari station wagon and a 15-day all-expense tour for two persons to Hawaii will head the imposing list of gifts to be distributed as a climax to the three-day fund-raising event.

Palm-fringed booths staffed by Holy Trinity personnel dressed in island garb will key the Hawaiian Holiday theme at the fiesta site on the parish grounds at Santa Cruz and Walker Sts., San Pedro. Highlight of the final day's activities will be the announcement of the winner of the traditional queen contest, said Carl Rogers, director. Young parishioners vying for this honor include the Misses Jo Anne Afrunti, Verna Butcher, Darlene Froelich, Rose Marie Contreras, Lorie Gonzales, Mary Gonzales, Pauline Redlew, Karen Summerfield, and Dorothy Workman.

The girl elected will be named 1959 Holy Trinity Queen and will preside over parish social affairs for the ensuing year. Each will be formally presented at the Hawaiian Holiday dance on May 22 at the Hacienda Hotel, reservations for which may be obtained by calling Mrs. Andrew J. De Paolo, Mrs. Philip Abbott or Mrs. Kenneth Ward Smith. Proceeds from the dances as well as those of the fiesta will be used for purchase of furnishings for the new Holy Trinity Church now under construction.

HAWAIIAN HOLIDAY-BOUND are (from left) Mmes. William J. Malloy, Carl Francis Rogers, and James J. Finn, planners of the gala dance at the Hacienda, Friday, which will inaugurate the fiesta season at Holy Trinity Church. Matson Navigation Company was recent host to the trio.
