

Deputy Grand Matron Makes Official Visit

Special escort was given to Deputy Grand Matron Florence Viellenave, a past matron of Torrance, when she made her official visit to the local Eastern Star Chapter Thursday.

Past matrons and patrons from Torrance and the district were escorted and presented.

Initiation was held with the choir providing music during the ceremony.

The examining committee performed their duties and a program of piano music was presented by Patricia Ouwendijk.

Worthy Matron Bettina Miller addressed the new members and the associate matron and officers offered a special presentation for the visiting deputy.

The deputy complimented the officers and members and gave instructions to the chapter from Worthy Grand Matron Annie Pickness Mills.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served in the dining room. Joyce Miller, chairman for the evening, chose decorations of Royal Amethyst and Acacia, the colors used when the deputy was worthy matron.

New Hospital Auxiliary Forming

Little Company of Mary Sets June 2 for Meeting

An auxiliary to assist in the welfare of the Little Company of Mary Hospital will be formed this week. Early fall has been set as the opening date of the hospital, now under construction at 4101 Torrance Blvd.

Women of the Harbor-South Bay area are invited to attend the first meeting of the auxiliary June 2 at 2 p. m. at Nativity Parish hall, Cota and Manual Sts.

Mrs. Frank H. Forester of Torrance will serve as first president of the auxiliary, with Mother M. Lucy in charge locally for the hospital, as honorary president.

Assisting Mrs. Forester and Mother Lucy in guiding the affairs of the auxiliary will be these ladies from various communities in the Harbor-South Bay area: Mrs. R. L. Moffitt of Torrance, first vice-president; Mrs. Laurence E. Smith of San Pedro, second vice-president; Mrs. Glenn I. Howe, Palos Verdes Estates, recording secretary; Mrs. Jerome J. Kimmitt, Redondo Beach, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Frank E. McAllister of Redondo Beach, financial secretary; Mrs. Robert O'Brien of Torrance, treasurer.

Standing committees will be named for membership, publicity, program, finance, volunteers and executive. Mrs. L. J. O'Hara of Torrance has been appointed publicity chairman.

Preliminary organizational work was accomplished at a meeting of the officers at the Torrance Gardens home of Mrs. George Leverenz, on Tuesday. Plans were formulated for the general meeting on June 2, at which time membership application can be made. About 200 women already have completed applications at a meeting some months ago, according to Mother Lucy. A variety of interesting jobs will be available to auxiliary members, all aiding in some measure the welfare of the hospital and its patients.

A WELFARE AUXILIARY for the little Company of Mary Hospital was organized this week. All women of the area are invited to join the auxiliary for the hospital, now under construction at 4101 Torrance Blvd. From left, front, Mrs. Frank H. Forester, president; Mother Lucy, and Mrs. Robert O'Brien; back row, Mmes. Laurence E. Smith, second vice-president, and Robert L. Moffitt, first vice-president, plan the first meeting June 2.

and the Torrance Junior Woman's Club featured student soloists. Included were Ronnie Van Dyck, clarinetist; Peter Bailey, violinist, and Patricia Patterson, pianist. Charles Brady, trumpeter, was the guest artist with Jim Davidson the guest conductor.

A reception for the Torrance Juniors was held following the concert by the mothers of the youth band.

Military Wedding Joins Callaway and Simmons

Miss Joy Lavonne Callaway became the bride of Lt. (jg) Roger Allen Simmons at a formal military wedding performed May 16 at the Western Ave. Baptist Church.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Callaway, 2226 247th St., Lomita, approached the flower-banked altar on the arm of her father. The ceremony uniting her to the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond G. Simmons of Houston, Texas, was performed by Rev. Walter Graham.

Mrs. Dorothy MacDonald accompanied Larry Meyers on the organ as he sang "Yours," "If I Loved You" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A gown of Chantilly lace and tulle was worn by the bride. The lace bodice was sprinkled with sequins and pearls and the bouffant skirt was of pleated nylon tulle over lace. Her illusion veil fell in a cascade from a pearl tiara and she carried a shower bouquet of orchids encircled by carnations.

As maid of honor, Miss Jackie Conner wore a floral printed chiffon over tulle gown and carried a bouquet of white carnations set off with touches of green.

Mrs. Marilyn Thorson and Mrs. Gloria Fenter, dressed in mint green chiffon and wearing wrist corsages of white carnations, served as candelighters.

Little Cindy Van Meter, wearing a bouffant organdy dress, was flower girl with Paul Moreau ring bearer.

Ens. John Wellenhofer served the bridegroom as best man with ushers Lt. Tom Withrow, Lt. Phil Simpson and Joe Zeroman completing the wedding party.

Mrs. Dean Coggins was in charge of the wedding reception which followed at the church social hall.

Out-of-town guests included the bridegroom's parents from Houston and the bride's brother, John Callaway Jr., of Oklahoma.

The bride is a graduate of Norbonne High School, '54. The bridegroom was graduated from Austin High School and the University of Houston, where he was a member of Sigma Chi fraternity.

Following the bridal couple's honeymoon at La Jolla, Lt. Simmons will be assigned to the USS Midway and the couple will take up residence in San Francisco.
