

TEACHERS' CHARITY DRIVE—The Torrance YMCA got $984 from the Torrance Education Association's annual charity drive. Local teachers collected $6553 in their united campaign, with 14 charities getting funds. Here, Mrs. Muriel Cassidy, TEA charity chairman, and Ed Sheets present Scott Albright, YMCA representative, with his share of the funds. The teachers also donated two $600 scholarships to local high school seniors.

Tordondo League Meet

Tordondo Little League Women's Auxiliary will hold its next general meeting June 4 at the Washington School, 1100 Lillian Lane, Redondo Beach at 7:30 p.m.

Robert Graham, floral artist will be the guest speaker. A coffee hour will follow the business meeting.

TEAC MEETING

A school construction report will be received by the Torrance Educational Advisory Committee Monday noon at its meeting at the YWCA.

Teachers Donate to 14 Charities

Fourteen charities benefitted this week, as the Torrance Education Association distributed $65,533 collected during its annual united charity drive.

The money was donated by local teachers in a united effort. Largest of the grants was for two $600 scholarships which were given to two local high school seniors who plan to go into teaching. This year's winners were Sonja Pesola, North High, and Kiyoko Takeuchi, Torrance High. Other recipients of the local teachers' charity funds included the Community Chest, $1015; Torrance Dental Health Assn., $1010; American Field Service, $650; T. E. A. Welfare Fund, $500; Torrance YMCA, $984; American Cancer Society, $266; Mental Health, $165; Heart Fund, $189; Multiple Sclerosis, $121; Cerebral Palsy, $116; Arthritis and Rheumatism, $118; Muscular Dystrophy, $109; and Red Cross, $105.

Mrs. Muriel Cassidy, the T.E.A. charity chairman, made the presentations to the various representatives of the charities.

Family Movie Night
