Boarding took place at the U.S. Naval Ship Yard, Long Beach. While crossing the channel to the island the scouts were invited to inspect the workings of the 203 foot landing vessel, and then experienced a real beach landing when the ship arrived at Emerald Bay.

After the ship was beached, the landing ramp was lowered, and a weekend of real fun was hiking and fishing. Highlight of underway. Activities included swimming, boating, skindiving, the day was when Marine Reserve Helicopter Squadron HMR-764 from Naval Air Station, Los Alamitos, dropped in, and as one 'copter set down, its sister ship hovered and lowered a special shipment of boxes. Upon opening these boxes the Explorers discovered the Marine pilots had delivered ice cream for their evening meal.

A short business meeting was conducted in the evening for the installation of new officers in the Explorer District Cabinet. Garry Rickard a Torrance Eagle Scout was installed as President for a second term. After this meeting were shown.

Sunday morning saw church services being conducted by the Explorers. At noon the Navy Landing Ship again nosed its way onto the beach and the boys boarded and were returned to the mainland, thus concluding the second Harbor District "Occupy."

SCOUT INVASION—More than 200 Explorer Scouts from Torrance and Lomita participated in an "invasion" of Catalina Island recently. Here they are shown as they are unloaded from the Navy landing ship.

Private War Featured in Gardena Race

Jack Austin of Downey, whose recent return to CJA hot-rod racing has been a dynamic one at Gardena Stadium, will be out for added cash and glory during Sunday's speedfest on the one-third mile clay oval. Races start 2:30 p.m. after trials at 1.

But Bellflower's Flying Dutchman—Ed Van Eyk—and sprint car ace Bobby Hogle, are wrapped in a private war for championship—determining points that may sweep them past all opposition. Hogle is a scant few tallies in arrears.

Also coveting Sunday will be such capable leadfoots as Billy Wilkerson, Jack Kelly, Fred Thomson, brothers Andy and Jasper Lopiccolo, Pete Cardenas, Chuck Guevara, Don Noel, Bobby Simmons, Paul Jones (Jarnell's younger brother of Torrance), Ernie Young, Chuck Townsen and Termitte Snyder.
