

Six Hurt in Holiday Crashes

Six persons were injured in four traffic collisions over the Memorial Day weekend, and one driver was arrested on suspicion of felony drunk driving charges.

Booked on intoxication charges was Carl Spencer Brandon, Jr., 34, of West Covina, whose passenger, Dorothea Johnson of Portland, Ore., was taken to Harbor General Hospital following a crash at Hawthorne and Del Amo Bldvs., police said.

Also injured in the two-car collision was Raymond Edward Brunstrom, 25, of Hawthorne, driver of the other machine, officers said.

Brian Hall, 6, of 2026 W. 185th St., was taken to Harbor General Hospital after he was struck by a car at 185th St. and Illinois Court, where the boy got out of another vehicle, police said.

The driver of the car, Clyde Lee Moore, 39, of 18526 Taylor Court, was not held by police.

Josephine Brooke Mack, 47, of Long Beach, and her passenger, Erna Josephine Scherer, 28, also of Long Beach, were injured in a collision with another vehicle at Hawthorne Blvd. and Pacific Coast Highway, police said.

Marie Oriow, 52, of Los Angeles, passenger in a vehicle driven by her husband, Nikolaj, 60, complained of a sore neck follow-
