Policemdn to Speak

Lieutenant Gus Rethwisch of the Juvenile Division, Torrance Police Department will be guest speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the Women's Guild of Seaside Community E&R United Church of Christ, 230th and Ocean Ave., at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday. He will speak on "The Juvenile and the Law."

IT'S HEAVY—Four-ton vault door was put into place this week at Bank of America's new Sepulveda-Hawthorne branch. Alex Bates, right, demonstrates the ease with which his new invention does the job. Vault expert for the bank, Bates worked nearly three years perfecting the hydraulic ram vault door erector, which saves time, avoids work injuries. The $297,000 bank building in West Torrance near the Broadway department store, is scheduled for completion by July.

SKETCH OF Bank of America's new branch in West Torrance which will open just south of Sepulveda Blvd. and Hawthorne Blvd. about mid-July. It will be located near the new Del Amo Shopping Center and cost $450,000 for building, land, and paved parking area. The bank's second branch in Torrance, it was designed by the Los Angeles architectural firm of Stiles and Robert Clements.

Traditional Dinner Set by Y-Wives

Torrance Y-Wives will serve their traditional dinner for their new officers Wednesday at 7 p.m., at the home of Mrs. John Chambers, 2228 Via LaBrea, Palos Verdes.

Dinner will be prepared by outgoing officers, Mmes. M. Ransom, John Gorman, John Chambers, Frank Milner and Francis Rutkosky.

Elections will be held at the June 9th business meeting at 10:30 a. m. at the YWCA. Mrs. Glaedys Nauman will also conduct the class in exercises and dancing at 9:30 a.m. Mrs. Minot Rugg, member of the Torrance Garden Club, will present a program on flower arranging at 10:30 a.m., June 2nd. She will criticize the arrangements brought by the members, as well as making arrangements.

Child care is provided at all Y-Wives meetings, and anyone interested in joining may call the YWCA for information.
