

Engagement of Miss Sandoval Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Roman M. Sandoval, 25052 Eshelman Ave., Lomita, announce the engagement of their daughter, Delores to Carl John Shellman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lawrence Shellman, 1616 West 7th St., San Pedro.

Miss Sandoval is a 1958 graduate of St. Anthony's Long Beach. Now attending Harbor Junior College evening classes, she is employed by Star Kist Foods Co. as a secretary.

Her fiance graduated from Torrance High School '55 and is secretary of the Pacific Shore Sails and Repair Corporation of which his father is president.

Shellman, who served for two years with the Helicopter division in Germany, is the grandson of the late Dr. Howard Campbell.

Dr. and Mrs. Campbell were Presbyterian missionaries in Chen' Mai, Siam for 30 years.

A fall wedding date is planned by the couple.

Mrs. Donahue to Head Fuchsia Entry Committee

Mrs. J. Donahue is chairman of the Torrance Branch of the California National Fuchsia Society's entry committee this year, announces Mrs. Frank Hinkel, secretary.

The society will enter the novel category at the Shade Plant Show at the Great Western Exhibit Center, Santa Ana Freeway and Atlantic, June 17 through June 21.

Last year the local club won third place cup in the same category.

Mrs. Donahue and her committee will have a final meeting to finish the entry this weekend.

Serving on the committee are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hinkel, Donahue, Henry Jenkins, Mrs. Stephen Boyko and Mrs. H. McGranahan.

Mrs. McCutcheon Visits Honolulu

An exciting trip with a two-fold purpose has Mr. Thomas J. McCutcheon busy with last minute packing.

Mrs. McCutcheon, 22958 Cabrillo Ave., will depart by plane early Monday morning for Honolulu.

During her month's stay there she will visit with Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Lyons, who have lived in Hawaii for the past five years.

Mrs. Lyons, who attended school in Pennsylvania with Mrs. McCutcheon and last visited Torrance in 1912, has not seen her friend for 12 years.

Among the plans already set by the Lyons for Mrs. McCutcheon's visit is a tour of the largest island.

Potluck Club Anniversary Celebrated Here

Anniversary celebrations were held by the Pot Luck Club June 7 when members met for a 10th birthday party at Lomi park.

Following a potluck picnic, the group played badminton, tennis and softball.

Attending the get-together were Messers and Mmes. E. R. Alves, J. F. Bowers, J. D. Edens, Alex Fragoso, C. F. Moore, W. A. McAllister, Bill Overstreet, Dallas Rasmussen, E. N. Reese, R. S. Rogers, O. E. Robinson, Fred Schimmel and E. D. Underwood.

Gene Underwood and Chuck Moore snapped candid shots and took movies of the entire affair.

In spite of the fact that some families have moved to other communities, pot luck luncheons have been held once a month since the club was formed ten years ago by members of Hall-dale PTA.

Party to Fete Foreign Students

Farewell Slated for Exchange Students

A farewell party for Per Svanevik of Norway and Dieter Seiler of Germany will be given by their Torrance friends Monday evening, 8 p.m. at the YWCA.

Both Per and Dieter will soon leave for their home countries following their year's stay in Torrance as part of the American Field Service's Student Exchange program.

The honored guests will be accompanied by their foster families, Per Svanevik with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin B. Grogan and Dieter Seiler with Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolf.

Special guests invited to attend the farewell for the two students are Mayor Isen, Dr. H. Hull, C. Cooke, Mrs. Don Armstrong, Mrs. Donald Hannum, Willard Morgan, James Blue, Franklin Anderson, Dr. Carl Ahee, Leonard Lifton, Mrs. Catherine Lepps, Dale Harter, Mrs. Jean Milton, Dr. W. B. Magnen, John Lucas, Miss C. Rous.

Student body presidents attending include John Brentwood, Torrance High School; Patricia Reynolds, North High School and Mike Robbins, South High School.

Others included are members of the student organizations, class presidents, contributing community service clubs and PTA council members.

Members of the American Field Service who will be present are Mmes. Francis Stockle, Dean

MONDAY'S FAREWELL PARTY for Per Svanevik, from Norway, and Dieter Seiler of Germany is rehearsed by (from left) Nita Bouldan, invited guest, Svanevik, and Mrs. Francis Stockle, chairman of the American Field Service, which sponsors the exchange program of foreign students. Svanevik and Seiler, who attended local high schools this past year, soon will leave for their home lands.

June Meeting Closes Altar Society's Season

Nativity Catholic Altar Society closed its social season, for the summer at the recent June meeting.

Games were played with prizes going to Mmes. Vernon Ewing, Frank Kristufek, William Nesenson, Joe Bagosi, Edward Heatherman, Robert J. Wilson, Adeline Kasker and Kathryn Shaughnessy. The grand prize was won by Mrs. John Tweedy.

Refreshments were served from buffet tables decorated with pastel floral arrangements and silver tea services.

Mrs. David Hughes and Mrs. Neil Conlogue, hostesses for the evening, were assisted by Mmes. R. Spelheger, LeRoy Armstrong, Clayton Bowen, Richard Oliver, Nick Giacinto, Michael Catena, J. L. Adams, Fred Cameron, Joseph Kern, Robert Klaesges, Lloyd Landerville, Miles O'Dowd, Fred Voeste and Daniel Moore.

Rev. Joseph McArdle in an inspirational talk, thanked all the members who worked so hard to make their semi-annual rummage sale a success.

During the business portion of the evening, November 6 and 7 were selected as the dates for the next semi-annual rummage sale.

Regular meetings of the society will resume in September.

Rummage Sale

Senior Girl Scouts of Troop 1299 will hold a rummage sale June 19 from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. and June 20 from 9:30 a.m. to noon, at St. Andrews Episcopal Church, 1432 Engracia.

Household articles and clothes for the family will be featured. The sale will help the girls finance their summer trip across the United States.

The troop is sponsored by the Torrance Business and Professional Women's Club.

New Arrival

A baby girl is the newest member of the Robert Wert family of 25338 Walnut St., Lomita.

Born at Harbor General Hospital, May 25, Sandra Rey, tipped the hospital scales at seven pounds and eleven ounces.

Mrs. Wert is the former Rose Marie Schwenk of Bad Kissengen, Germany, and the daughter of Valentin Schwenk of the same city. The Werts have one other child, a son, David, one year.

Mrs. Cullum Elected Lioness President

Mrs. Nelson Cullum was elected president of the North Torrance Lioness Club at its June meeting at the Cockatoo Inn.

Elected to serve with her were: Mmes. Dan McLayne, vice president; Jack Mathews, recording secretary; Eugene Brown, corresponding secretary; Dick Hubert, treasurer and Clay Noland, hair puller.

Mrs. Jack Parker presided at the meeting and Mmes. Charles Thomas, Donald Wilson, Robert Church, Charles Comstock and James Culver were accepted into membership.

A report on the recent Progressive dinner was given by Mrs. Hubert and Mrs. Brown presented plans for the coming installation.

Members voted to hold a dinner meeting on the first Monday of each month and to plan six socials for the year.

Mrs. Earl Chambers presented the nominating committees report preceding the election. Mrs. Hubert acted as hostess for the evening.

SPRING LUNCHEON
Mrs. John Arnesmeyer, 1734 Juniper, entertained with a spring luncheon at her home June 5. Those invited were Mmes. T. R. Jackson, Rod Baillie, Wilson, William Boell, Kenneth McVey.

Hawaiian Holiday Planned by Marina District

An exciting Hawaiian Holiday is planned by the Marina District 18, California Federation of Women's Clubs, for this fall.

The tour, a benefit for the district, will take place September 11 and is open to all club members, their families and friends.

The luxurious round trip will cost $259.10 per person, standard service and $293.15 for first class on a transoceanic Sky Party Flight.

Accommodations will be arranged at the Waikiki Beach Resort Hotel. Highlights of the stay will include an authentic Luau, a motor tour to Mount Tantalus, an outrigger canoe ride and a departure Aloha dinner at a well known Honolulu dining room.

Mrs. Margulies New President

Mrs. Mel Margulies was installed as president of Las Madrecitas, the South Bay auxiliary of Crippled Children's Guild, Orthopedic Hospital, at the Jump 'N Jack restaurant, June 4.

Installed with Mrs. Margulies were Horace LeCuyer, first vice-president; Glen Kleinhesselink, second vice-president; Louis F. Lanzer, treasurer; Hans Hansen, recording secretary; David Levine, corresponding secretary; Frank Bescoy, historian; and Richard Egan, auditor.

Chairmanships will be held by Mmes. William W. Buchanan, hospitality; Robert S. Cameron, membership; and Richard Wilson, volunteer service.

LAST-MINUTE packing by Mrs. Thomas J. McCutcheon, 22958 Cabrillo Ave., brings a dubious look from her uninvited pooch. Mrs. McCutcheon will leave by plane Monday morning for a month's stay with Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Lyons in Honolulu.

PTA Final Fling

An ice cream social, the final fling of the PTA year, was held recently by 259th Place School PTA.

A talent show with E. A. Cook as master of ceremonies was presented in the school auditorium.

Mrs. Chris Wuethrich supervised the show assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Cook, Mrs. G. H. Nelson and Mrs. Dan Bowling.

Three songs were presented in calypso style by pupils of David Anderson's Sixth grade class.
