Miss McMonigle to Be Queen Contestant

Miss Frances McMonigle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. McMonigle of Hollywood Riviera, has been selected to represent the Los Crusados Council of the Knights of Columbus in a contest to select a queen for the annual Rancho San Antonio Ball to be held later this year.

Proceeds of the charity affair, sponsored by the 63 councils of the Southern California Chapter of the Knights of Columbus, will be donated to Rancho San Antonio, the so-called "Boy's Town of the West," located in the San Fernando Valley.

Miss McMonigle, a junior at St. Anthony's High School in Long Beach will compete with girls representing many cities in Southern California.

Marital Vows Unite Local Couple Here

LaRue Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde C. Myers, 116 E. 215th St., became the bride of George Wallace Boss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell G. Boss, 103 E. 230th St., Wilmington, June 6 at the Keystone Baptist Church, 8 p. m.

Rev. D. A. Likins stood before the candlelit altar, decorated with white gladiolas and stocks, as he read the vows uniting the couple.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length chantilly lace over tulle gown made and designed by her mother. Her fingertip veil was caught by a tiara of seed pearl.

Bridal Shop Holds Grand Opening Here

"Everything but the groom" is the motto of the new "Candle-Lite Gown Shoppe," 2115 Torrance Blvd.

Grand opening for the mecca of the bride-to-be will be held this Saturday, June 20, with free corsages given to all who attend.

The one-stop shopping center for the bride and her too-often-harassed mother will be worth paying a visit to even if you lack a bridegroom.

Besides bridal and bridesmaids' gowns, the shop offers a rental service for cocktail and evening dress and carries formal wear for all occasions.

June, the month of brides, is an appropriate time for opening the shop, which promises to smooth out the snags in the largest of formal weddings.

Invitations, flowers and wedding pictures can all be taken care of in one sitting, assures Mrs. Alice M. Clark, owner of the store.

Mrs. Shirley Max, her assistant, is eager to aid the bride in tying up all those little last-minute details.

A catering service also is offered by the shop and invitations in the flower lines will be carried.

Store hours will be from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. every week-day and from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. on Saturdays.

Maid of honor Miss Netia Hudgons wore a full length rose gown of net over taffeta and carried a basket of orchids.

Bridesmaids Misses Ruth Ammann, Brenda Gray, Jean Carrall and Pat Boss wore rose and blue floor length gowns of net over taffeta and also carried baskets of orchids.

Sandra Hughes and Dawn Climpett acted as candle lighters and Karen Boss, Linda Boss and Pamela Hudgons served as Guest Book registrars.

Little Merrie Lenn Boss, in a white net dress and carrying a basket of rose petals, was the flower girl.

Completing the wedding party were Russell R. Boss as best man; Ed Lewis, Glenn Myers, Gerald Myers and Archie Sossaman, ushers and Brent Cook, ring bearer.

Mrs. Myers, mother of the bride wore a blue brocade sheath with white accessories and Mrs. Boss, the bridegroom's mother a pink brocade sheath with white accessories.

A reception at the church followed the ceremony. The couple then left for a week's honeymoon in Catalina.

Both the bride and the bridegroom are graduates of Banning High School. The bridegroom graduated in the summer of 1955 and the bride in the winter of 1958.

The bridegroom is employed by L. A. County as a Junior Engineering Aid. The new Mrs. Boss is employed by Hallet F. Brown, Jr. CPA.
