Dr. Tapp to Address Unitarians Here

Dr. Robert Tapp, professor of theology at St. Laurence University, New York, will present an address at the morning service of the Pacific Unitarian Church this Sunday.

Speaking on the topic, "Liberalism's Continental Cousins," Dr. Tapp brings a wide experience through travel with the American Friends Service Committee and his work at the Albert Schweitzer College in Churwalden, Switzerland.

Fleming PTA Puts Emphasis on Recreation

Recreation was the theme of the last meeting of the year for Fleming Junior High School PTA.

Mrs. Ray Stalmack from the Department of Parks and Recreation spoke to the group on the recreational facilities available in the area.

Local playgrounds begin their summer programs July 1st and will be open weekdays from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m. and on weekends from 9 to 5. Craft work, sports and special events will be featured stated Mrs. Stalmack.

The Machado swimming pool will be open one week after school is out from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. with free diving lessons for students 7 to 17.

Griffith Park has weekend camping all year for boys and girls and weekly summer outings for boys from June 22—Sept. 12.

For family fishing trips, the City Recreation and Parks Department has a fleet of rental motor and rowboats at Crowley Lake near Bishop available until July 31. About 20 miles west is Camp High Sierra which is a family vacation camp located in the Mammoth Lakes region, 320 miles north of L.A.

Accommodations include rustic cabins, a dining hall with food served family style and a recreation lodge.

Scout Troop Court of Honor Held

Boy Scout Troop 211 held its second annual Court of Honor at the cafeterium at Howard Wood School, recently, with Scoutmasters Don Cooke and Jack Hoy presented the awards. Hal Laudeman, Torrance area commissioner, presented the charter to the PRA, sponsors of the troop. Adults receiving cards for the year were Hoy, William Stoltz, Gordon Jones, H. Fischer, Phil Collins, Tony Schnell, L. Brown, J. Moss, J. Nielsen, Jack Roberts, James Kline and Joe Helphand. Certificates of registration cards were presented to Scouts John Faulkner, Gordie Jones, Steven Brown, Mike Collins, Barry Moss, David Beller, David Fischer, Lonnie Languis, Paul Hoy, Ronnie Cooke, Billy Wassenberg, Jeff Braswell and Keith Neilsen.

Committeemen awarded two-year pins were Scoutmaster Don Cooke, Assistant Scoutmaster Gordon Jones and Treasurer William Stoltz. Hoy and Fischer were awarded one-year pins as were Scouts Jeff Braswell, John Faulkner, Paul Hoy, David Fischer, Ronnie Cooke and David Beller.

Two-year pins were given to Gordie Jones, Steven Brown and Billy Wassenberg, who were on the original charter of Troop 211. New patrol leaders are Ronnie Cooke, Jeff Braswell, Ronnie Norman and Paul Hoy. Assistants are Paul Drury, Barry Moss and Terry Strouse. Boys who assumed new ranks were Gordie Jones, quartermaster; Billy Wassenberg, librarian; and David Fischer, scribe. Other scouts are Louis Rodriguez, David Bath, David Roberts, Freddie Kline, W. Bethune and David Lane.
