Open House Planned for New Bank

Bank of America will introduce its new Sepulveda-Hawthorne branch in West Torrance at an open house party the evening of July 16.

Manager Verne L. Hughes said the open house will feature unusual displays, refreshments, music, prizes, a treasure chest contest and balloons for the kids. It will also give residents a chance to thoroughly inspect the $447,000 premises from vault to mezzanine before it opens for business the following morning, July 17.

The branch located at 8804 Sepulveda Boulevard near the junction of Hawthorne Avenue, will offer complete metropolitan banking facilities, including—escrow and safe deposit sections.

With 11,320 square feet of floor space in the building, there will be 22 teller stations, providing customers with quick service while banking.

The Sepulveda-Hawthorne branch is the 653rd in the bank's statewide system.

IN JAPAN—Thomas M. Jones, owner of WALTERIA Cleaners, 24264 Hawthorne Blvd., is currently in Japan, attending the International Dry Cleaners convention. Jones will return here in about three weeks.

Rock Wool Plant Changed to New Management Here

A smooth transition was expected as the American Rock Wool plant here was transferred to the United States Gypsum Co. yesterday.

John Ebbinghouse, plant manager here for 11 years, will continue to serve in that capacity. Employees of the firm have been interviewed for jobs with the new management.

Company spokesmen said they want to retain as many of the American Rock Wool personnel as possible.

Thirty Boys on 'Y' Caravan Tour of Northwest States

Thirty teenage boys from the South Bay area departed from the Torrance YMCA at 4 a.m. yesterday morning for a month-long tour of the Great Northwest.

The YMCA Caravan will travel to Sacramento during the first day, and after viewing Sutter's Fort and Capital Buildings, will head for the Feather River. This week-end, will see the local youngsters camping on the shore of Manzanita Lake in Mt. Lassen National Park. Mt. Lassen will be the first of fourteen National Parks to be visited by the "Y" group.

The bulk of the month will be spent in Oregon, Washington, British Columbia, and will be highlighted by visits to Banff, Jasper and Glacier National Parks.

The boys have met throughout the year to plan their own trip under the guidance of the Torrance YMCA staff. The youths have determined their own route, program, menu, equipment, rules of conduct, and even budget.

They elected Tom Pettepiece, 5513 Calle de Ricardo, as their president. Each day Tom will preside at a "Town Hall Meeting" during which the boys determine the day's events.

Those attending are: Steve Bailey; Bob Bashor; Norman Bostick; John Clemons; Tommy Cooper, Peter De Turk, Sparky Dubiski, Don Fogg, Paul Frost, Jim Jeffers, Dale Matteson, Richard Matteson, Julius Meier, Gregory Morley, and Bob Miller.

In addition to the boys, the local YMCA Staff of Douglas Cannon, Paul Slyh and Joe Wilcox will serve as leaders for the group.
