Local Troop Breaks Winter Hike Trails

Boy Scout Troop 201 of Torrance gave Harbor District the lead in summer Scouting by finishing the Golden Arrowhead award hike by June 19.

Scoutmaster Dion Dyer, who led the group of 12 Boy Scouts were Scoutmaster Dean Zander and Junior Assistant Scoutmaster Dion Dyer.

The hike started on June 13 from Big Pine Camp, and continued on a rugged mountain trail through the Big Bear Lake area where the group camped for two days. They then went on to Big Horn Boy Scout Camp at Lake Arrowhead where the trail ends.

The boys of Troop 201 who finished the trip were Don Alles, Gary Brugman, Dennis Dyer, Dion Dyer, Walter Furusho, Craig Harris, Eric Jones, Jim King, Bruce Norman, Wily Penson, Eddie Serber, Terry Willey, and Ron Yurkiewicz.

Dehydrated food and camp equipment were carried in packs, and additional food was delivered to points along the way by scout fathers.

Those delivering supplies to the troop were the following Scout Committee members: Philip Patten, committee chairman; Wayne Norman, camping chairman; Cecil Ostrander, transportation; Earl Brugman, advancement; Grant Jones, secretary; and Wilson Willey, former committee chairman.

The troop was the first of the season to break the trail after the winter snows.

When passing a pedestrian in the street, slow down and given him room, advises the Allstate Safety Crusade.
