Provost, Witherspoon United in Marriage

Baskets of white stocks decorated the Acacia Baptist Church, Hawthorne, for the marriage ceremony, June 28 at 3 p.m. when Miss Anna Pearl Provost, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Provost, 1646 W. 220th St., became the bride of Clifford Leroy Witherspoon.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore a wedding gown of paneled lace and inset net with cap sleeves and a fingertip length veil.

Miss Jerri Lynne Provost, the bride's sister served as the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Misses Betty Ann Scarce and Mae Denton.

The maid of honor wore a dress of pale green net and the bridesmaids were gowned in matching ensembles of pink taffeta with lace accessories.

Charles Hoy served the bridegroom as best man and ushers were William Lucas, Edward De Frain and Robert Stone.

Little Penny Lune Scarce, dressed in pink organdy and carrying a basket of carnations completed the wedding party as flower girl.

Rev. Henry Buhler officiated at the marriage and following the ceremony sang the "Lord's Prayer."

The mother of the bridegroom wore a powder blue silk sheath with white accessories for the occasion and the bride's mother a beige brocade organza gown with matching accessories and a red rose corsage.

A reception at the Elks Hall in Inglewood followed the wedding.

Vacation Bible School Teachers Entertained at Sunday Dinner

Vacation Bible School teachers and workers of Calvary Baptist Church, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd., were entertained by the Vacation Bible School at a supper Sunday.

At the evening worship service the pastor, Rev. H. Earl Kuester lead a dedication service for the teachers and workers. The Vacation Bible School will run from July 6 to 17.

The Ordinance of Baptism was observed at the evening service and pictures of the Cuban Revolution shown with a taped narrative by the Rev. Wilbur Larson, Secretary for the Division of Latin America for the American Baptist Convention Home Mission Societies.

Saturday the Junior High and Senior High Youth held a Spaghetti Splash at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Wolford, 2412 W. 134th Pl.

The Senior Citizen group will hold a potluck picnic at Point Fermin Park in San Pedro today. Transportation will be furnished in private cars.

Torrance Youth Wins Scholarship

North High School senior James Wilson, 5415 Sunnyview, was one of four students to receive a four-year college scholarship under Northrop Corporation's new merit scholarship program for employe families.

Selected on the basis of their high standings in the National Merit Scholarship Competition, the four scholars will attend colleges of their choice. Young Wilson, son of W. J. Wilson, Northair Division instrumentation engineer, will major in physics at Caltech.

Musical Chairs Game for City Hall Office Space

City officials have nearly completed a game of musical chairs for city hall office space.

Since the recreation department was moved to the old city hall, additional office space has been made available in the new city hall.

The city clerk's office has moved into the old recreation quarters, and the treasurer's office is now in the former clerk's quarters. The finance department will take over the former personnel office, and the license department will also be expanded.

Airport Board Member Blocked in Reappointment

Renomination of John Simpson for another term on the Airport Commission was rejected by the City Council Tuesday.

The reappointment of Commission President Tom Adams was passed unanimously. Councilman Willys Blount criticized Simpson's attendance record at commission meetings. He proposed the name of Joe Doss, a businessman and private flyer, to the vacancy.

Another nomination is expected to be made Tuesday by Mayor Albert Isen.

Mrs. McVey to Tour Air Academy

Mrs. Naomi McVey has been selected, as one of 16 women civic leaders in California, to be the guest of the Air Force Association to attend a tour of the United States Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, July 16-18. Mrs. McVey is a member of the City Recreation Commission and outgoing president of the Torrance Council of PTA. She is a vice president of the Torrance Chapter of the City of Hope and vice chairman of the City to City Committee.

The bride is a graduate of the '59 summer class of Narbonne High School. The bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Scarce of 22310 Avis Court, graduated from Narbonne High School the summer of '58 and is employed by Kimbell Construction Co., Buena Park.

The newlyweds will make their home at 1534 W. 227th St.
