Polynesian Party Set by Sorority

Benefit Party to Aid Local Hospital

A promise of warm weather, sunny skies and fine food add up to assure the success of South Bay Tri Delta alumnae's benefit party next Wednesday at the Polynesian Restaurant.

Some 250 friends and members of Delta Delta Delta, all in gay casual costumes, are expected to attend the 11 a. m. brunch and to enjoy an afternoon of bridge and canasta, according to Mrs. John M. Basler, Palos Verdes Estates, general chairman.

Each guest, Mrs. Basler said, will be presented with a gift in keeping with the tropical decor of the restaurant. There will be door prizes and a prize for the high bridge or canasta scorer at each table. All proceeds from the benefit will be donated to the pediatric department at Harbor General Hospital for new equipment.

Aiding Mrs. Basler in party arrangements are Mrs. Edward B. Wilder, Rolling Hills alumnae president; Mmes. John Van Camp and Carl Stoffers, tickets and reservations; Mrs. Mark U. McKie, bridge and canasta; Mrs. Donald C. Kane, door prizes; and Mrs. Philip Slater and Miss Barbara A. Peterson, decorations.

Tickets may be obtained by calling Mrs. Van Camp at FR 5-7386 or Mrs. Stoffers at FR 5-7702.

Bridge Club Adds Wednesday Baby Service

Wednesday's fast growing new bridge club at the Torrance YWCA, 2320 Carson St., added a new feature this week.

The club, which meets from 12 to 3 p. m., now offers economical baby sitting to its members. The cost of the baby sitter is split between the children being cared for.

Beginner and intermediate membership to the Wednesday afternoon club is still open, announces Bob Christie, director and well-known tournament player. Membership may be obtained by calling the YWCA at FA 8-5914.

Sermon Series

"Responsibility of the Temple" will be another in the sermon series from Great Questions of the Bible at Seaside Community United Church of Christ, 230th and Ocean Ave., today at 10:45 a.m.

Church school is at 9:20 p.m., child care is provided during the worship service.

Hat Luncheon Held by Local Lionettes

The monthly business meeting of the South Torrance Lionettes was held June 26 at the Entre Nous restaurant. It was no coincidence that all members arrived wearing the same hats. Business at hand was planning a complete "look-alike" outfit to be worn to district conventions and on special occasions.

Douglas Trowbridge, newly elected president of the South Torrance Lions was a guest for lunch and briefly discussed plans for the coming year.

Other guests of the club were Mrs. LaVane Forsythe, Mrs. George Jordan and Mrs. Herb Farris all of the South Bay area.

The outgoing president, Mrs. A. E. Perkins turned over the gavel to the incoming president, Mrs. John Wallace in time for her to adjourn the meeting.

Bible Teaching Class

An adult class aimed at parents who wish to teach the Bible to their children will begin today at Seaside Community Church, 230th and Ocean Ave.

This will be the beginning of a six week series held during the church school hour.

Bridal Shower Held for Local Couple Here

Friends and relatives gathered recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pouncey of 1508 Date St., to honor John Birchler and Dale Howard with a miscellaneous shower. The popular young couple have set July 18 as their wedding date.

Both are Narbonne High School graduates and well known in Lomita. Joan is a member of the Lomita Job's Daughters and Dale, a past Master Councilor with a Chevalier Degree of the Lomita De Molay.

Guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. William Bell of La Crescenta, Mr. and Mrs. Dean McCullough and sons Dean Jr. and Wayne and Eddie Pouncey of Whittier, Mr. and Mrs. James Reardon and sons Jimmy and Mark of Los Altos.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Olsen of Wilmington, Mrs. M. Haworth, Mrs. V. Martens and Mrs. William Johnson of Harbor City, Mr. and Mrs. C. Crawford, the bride elect's mother, and Mrs. D. Lewis, her grandmother, of Lomita.

Mr. and Mrs. George Howard and son Clinton of San Pedro, parents and brother of the bridegroom-to-be. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Boersma of San Pedro, Mrs. Arthur Grant and son Richard of Torrance. Hosts for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Pouncey and son Bob.

Games were played during the evening, with prizes received by Mrs. Ray Olsen and Mrs. C. Crawford.

A cake decorated with the names of the young couple served as a centerpiece for the table, set with sterling silver and tall pink candles.

All of the guests had been former residents of Lomita or Harbor City with the exception of Mr. and Mrs. William Bell of Hawaii.

Six Harbor Area 'Y' Delegates to Attend Council Meet in Mexico

Harbor Area YWCA announces that it will be represented by six delegates at the World Council of the YWCA at Cuernavaca, Mexico this September.

They are Miss Frances Clark, first vice president and area membership chairman and Jeanette Patchin, director of the San Pedro Branch, who served in the Foreign Division of the Association.

This meeting of the World Council will mark the first time in the 65 years of its existence that it has met in a Latin American country. To this little town of Cuernavaca will come representatives of National Associations from 60 countries.

The visitors program, in which Miss Clark and Miss Patchin will participate, has been arranged at the request of many National Associations in order to make it possible for the largest number of people to have some contact with the World Council meeting.

Visitors will have the opportunity of attending the sessions of the council meeting which there will be major addresses. In addition, there will be presentations and briefing on the work of the world YMCA, given by members of the World YMCA Executive Committee, and staff and council members.

A special two day excursion is being planned for the Visitors' Program, as well as two or three other visits to places of special interest.

Sue Perry, former Advisory Secretary to the YMCA of Mexico, now living in Fullerton will be the coordinator of the program.

AT HOME—Mrs. James Edward Hachtel, the former Miss Vivian Mary Grate and her husband are now at their new home, 1713 W. 262nd St., Harbor City. The newlyweds exchanged wedding vows June 20 at Wayfarer's Chapel, Palos Verdes.

'New Look' Is Theme for Gateway Council

"Gateway Council Assumes a New Look" is the theme for 1959-60, developed from two program planning meetings held recently.

The first, held in the Gardena home of Mrs. W. E. Martois, program chairman, was attended by the new presidents Mmes. John Kapu, Banning High School PTA; Harry G. Foot, Jr., Dana Jr.; Leland Van Buren, Fleming Jr.; E. N. Reese, Gardena; David P. Goolsby, Narbonne; Glenn H. Stokes, Peary Jr.; Joel Steele, San Pedro; Glen T. Mullin, S. M. White Jr.; Glade Murchison, Wilmington Jr. High PTA as well as Mrs. E. G. Croom, council president.

Officers for the new year met in Mrs. Croom's home, 1433 West "F" Street, Wilmington, to study program plans.

It was agreed that monthly sub-topics will not be announced until they have been submitted to the executive board for approval. The board will meet for a potluck picnic in Banning Park, Wilmington, Sept. 8, at 10 a.m.

Can Your Youngsters Pass These 6 Simple Tests?

1. Lie flat on the floor with your hands behind your neck; ask someone to hold your feet, and then roll up into a sitting position.
2. Repeat test one, but with your knees bent and your feet on the floor as close as you can comfortably put them to your body.
3. Lie flat, as in test number one, and raise your legs to a thirty-degree angle, holding them straight out for ten seconds.
4. Lie on your stomach, put a thick pillow under your hips, clasp your hands, and while someone holds your feet, raise your head and chest just off the floor for ten seconds.
5. From the same position, have someone hold your chest down, and raise your legs off the floor for ten seconds.
6. Bend over and, without bouncing up and down, touch the floor with your fingertips, and hold for three seconds.

OUR SPORTS SCHOOL WILL HELP YOUR CHILDREN'S DEVELOPMENT

President Eisenhower termed the report "shocking" when he learned that over half of our American children do not have even the minimum strength and flexibility which they need in order to carry on ordinary healthy lives. (July, 1957, COSMOPOLITAN.)

In our Gymnasium, they will learn skills in Boxing and Wrestling, Tumbling and Trampoline, Swimming and other sports. For girls: Acrobatics, Tumbling and Trampoline and Swimming.
