GARDEN VISIT—Julie Somers, Lois Shurgot and Mrs. Verna Gluth, members of the Lomita Branch of the California National Fuchsia Society look at some of the prize plants in the gardens of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Eipper. The society will hold its summer flower show at the Eipper Gardens, July 19.

Eipper's Gardens Place Of Free Flower Show

Lomita Branch of the California National Fuchsia Society has set July 19 as the date for its free Summer Flower Show.

The show will be held at Eipper's Gardens, 25338 Pennsylvania Ave., Lomita.

Entries in the show will include specimen blooms and cut flowers of any variety, garden club competition table arrangements, not to exceed 18 inches in length, and three categories of flower arrangements, miniatures, miscellaneous and table arrangements.

Ribbons will be awarded each category. Entries must be in by 12 noon July 19.

Garden visitation leaves at 1 p.m. and returns to Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Eippers for spaghetti dinner and awarding of merchandise prizes at 6 p.m.

First prize will be $50, second prize $30 and third prize, $20.

Tickets may be obtained through the secretary, FR 5-6816 or any club member. Donation price for the dinner and merchandise prizes is $1.

Shade Plant Display Set by Society

Flower club members and garden lovers are invited to display shade plants at the Gardena Valley Branch's Fuchsia and Shade Plant Display, Monday, 8 to 10 p.m., at the Woman's Club House, 16121 Orchard Ave., Gardena.

The display will be non-competitive with all shade plants accepted.

Doors will be open at 6 p.m. The evening's program will include a door prize award at 8:30 p.m., a plant identification and question and answer period at 9 p.m. and a plant sale at 9:30 p.m.

Fuchsia Society Preparing for Flower Show

Members of the North Torrance Fuchsia Society don't depend on lady luck when it comes to prize flowers.

This week they are busy carefully grooming plants for the flower show, July 14, at McMasters Hall, 174th and Yukon.

Entries to the show, arrangements plants or blossoms, must be placed between 5 and 6:30 p.m. July 14. Information may be obtained by calling Mmes. N. Edward Hechinger, DA 3-1028; Frank Hinkel, DA 9-1427; Garrison Ruby, DA 9-3436 and after 5 p.m. John Wehrman, DA 4-7180.

Three competent authorities will act as judges.

They are: William Taylor, past president of the California National Fuchsia Society; George Yonemura and Kenny Uveda, local nurserymen.

Judging will begin at 6:30 p.m. with the doors opening at 8 p.m. Awards will be presented throughout the show.

"Vacation" Motif

Mrs. Kenneth Judd, 4139 W. 173rd Pl. was hostess at a "Vacation" motif luncheon June 30 honoring the birthdays of Mmes. T. R. Jackson and William Boell.

Table colors were carried out in lime and yellow with a centerpiece of yellow shasta daisies.

Cartoon place cards, showing "wishful thinking" vacation plans were drawn by the hostess' daughter, Christy, and Linda Jackson.

The following guests attended: Mmes. John Arnesmeyer, Mrs. Boell, T. R. Jackson, Wilson Wiley and Kenneth McVey.

'Extras' Stated for Opening of 'East Lynne'

"East Lynne" presented by the Hermosa Beach Pier layhouse will be heralded in with all sorts of "added extras" at this evening's opening performance.

Jo McDonald, a member of the cast, donated her talent with a paint brush and came up with a pizza where pizza will be served.

Cal Sever, joined Mrs. McDonald in painting the lobby where between acts, there will be the old fashioned olio acts.

The play will run through August 1, and is under the direction of Charles Gray and produced by his wife, Patricia.

For reservations call FR 2-5000. Curtain time, 8:30 p.m.

Recent Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Basil Hernandez of Pueblo, Colorado, were the recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Huerta of 2014 W. 180th St.

They toured various sections of California during their two week stay.

Hi Neighbors Set Fashion Show Date

Hi Neighbors set the date for its fashion show and made plans for the annual Picnic at the recent meeting held at the home of Mrs. Frank Oldt, 2022 West 180 St.

The fashion show will be held August 12 at the home of Mrs. Ralph Madden. The picnic is slated for July 12 at El Nido Park.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Lewis Ambrosia with Mrs. Robert Godward as co-hostess.

McVeys Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McVey, 17644 Cranbrook Ave., have had Mrs. McVey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ferguson of Tucson, Arizona as recent house guests.

Trips of interest were planned for the Fergusons. A highlight of their visit was viewing the exhibit of photographs taken by McVey on display at the Western Division of Graflex, Inc., Hollywood.

During the meeting fashions were modeled by Susan Oldt and Cathy Dean and a rummage sale was held with proceeds going to the treasury.

Club Invitation Given for Midsummer Tea

An open invitation to an informal tea is announced by the Torrance Woman's and Junior Woman's Clubs.

Local women will have an opportunity to get acquainted with the aims and activities of the group at the midsummer event set for July 23 from 1:30 to 3 p.m. at the club house, 1422 Engracia.

There will be a short program with officers and chairmen acting as speakers, and displays of projects and programs will be exhibited.

The club offers new friends, recreation and an opportunity for the individual to serve her community, states a club spokeswoman.

Regular meetings of the Torrance Woman's Club are held the first and third Wednesday afternoon of each month from October to June. Meetings of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club are held on the second and fourth Wednesday evenings.

The midsummer tea enables women interested in joining the club, to be included in the year book that goes to press early in August.

Green Thumbers Discuss Fall Flower Show

Plans for a fall flower show were discussed at the recent meeting of the Greenthumber's Garden Club held at the home of Mrs. George Horton.

Mrs. Louis R. Wilhelm was installed as the new vice-president replacing Mrs. Leslie Sellmeyer. Mrs. Sellmeyer resigned as her husband's business will take them out of California.

Members present were: Mmes. Harry Allen, James Buchanan, George Horton, John Klug, John Knight, Joseph Leger, Louis Wilhelm, and Vincent Patten.

FLOWER SHOW TIPS are exchanged by Torrance Fuchsia Society members, from left, Mmes. John Wehrman, registrar; John Donahue, ways and means; Frank Hinkel, chairman of show, and Arthur Groff, membership chairman, as they plan the event set for July 14 at McMasters Park Hall.

Miss Anderson to Show Coin Collection

Miss Betty Anderson of 1003 South Belfon St. will display coins and medals decorated with ships at the Southern Hub Coin Club's second anniversary Sunday.

The "Open House" affair featuring many coin collections will be held at the Lennox Woman's Club House, 4441 Lennox Blvd., Inglewood.

Highlighting the afternoon will be the "Variety Fun Show" from C.B.S. with Johnny Jacob's as M.C., announces John Parrish, Lawndale, entertainment chairman.

No admission will be charged for the open meeting with refreshments and an auction of valuable coins scheduled to follow the program.

Vacation Bible School

Plans have been completed for the first term of Vacation Bible School at the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd, 21100 Victor Street, announces Rev. Gerald W. Garlid.

Classes will be held at the church July 13-24, with daily morning sessions from 9 to 11:45 a.m. during the two-week period, Monday through Friday.

Open to all children, the school will include classes for boys and girls who will begin Kindergarten this fall and for those who have been in Kindergarten through Grade Eight during the last school year.

"We Believe" will be the theme of the course of study. The daily program will include worship, Bible study, music, recreation, and handicraft activities. Advanced registrations, which are requested by the school staff, are being made this week. Further information may be had by calling FRontier 3-1144, 5-0931, or 8-24-09.
