Season Tickets on Sale at El Camino College

Season tickets for the Summer Theater program of El Camino College are now on sale at the student store in the Campus Center, Hamilton M. Maddaford, assistant director of student personnel, announced today. Four plays may be seen for the $2 ticket. The college will ring up the curtain on the season's first production, "View from the Bridge," tomorrow and Saturday evening at 8:30 p.m. Completing the 1959 summer series will be the productions of "Our Town," "Peter Pan," and the "Man Who Came to Dinner," which will be shown on successive Friday and Saturday nights. The later production will be staged in the music patio in an arena theater performance. Joe D'Agosta, winner of the

1959 college award for "Best Actor of the Year," directs "A View from the Bridge," written by Arthur Miller. Leading roles will be portrayed by Chuck Cox, Vivian Rodrigues, Jacque Oliver and Gary Paggett. Rounding out the cast will be

ECC Recreation Program Winners Announced Here

Results of the first round of tournaments held in conjunction with the current community recreational program of El Camino College were announced today by Instructor Al Greenleaf.

The program, which will run through August 28, is free of charge to children six years of age and over. No prior enrollment is necessary for children wishing to participate in the program, Greenleaf announced.

The instructor noted, however, that registration is required for the summer swimming program, for which a charge of $1 per two-week period is made. Next registration date for this program will be August 1. Further information regarding the schedule and registration is available in the foyer of the Administration building on the El Camino College campus, 16007 S. Crenshaw Blvd.
