

Auxiliary's Party Features Native Costumes, Songs

COOL TROPICAL COSTUME will be a must at the "Fireladies" luau party Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith, 5613 Ruby Place. Dressed in preparation for the

Strum of Ukuleles and Guitars to Highlight Fireladies Luau

Shouts of "Aloha" will greet members of the Torrance Fire Department's "A" and "B" shifts Saturday evening at 5 p.m. when they attend the Luau in their honor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Smith, 5613 Ruby Place.

The Fireladies, ladies auxiliary of the Fire Department, have planned an authentic Hawaiian evening for the men that will include a tropical setting and island menu.

The mainland will be left behind as woven mats, tapa clothes, luau torches and bright hibiscus bring a polynesian atmosphere to the Smith home.

Vahines, women or girls, and Tanes, men, will join in the Upa upa to the strum of steel guitars and ukuleles.

Vahines will be in costumes of coconut hats, grass skirts, muu musu and sarongs. Tanes will wear island lava lavas, pulas, serfers and the traditional Hawaiian shirts.

Low luau tables, decorated with arranged for those lingering to hear the Hawaiian music from the shell and fish net decorated piano.

Committee members of the Ladies Auxiliary planning the affair are: Mmes. Lindsey Browning and Ronald Power, reservations.

Food delicacies will be prepared by Mmes. Power, William Buckley, Frank Bland, George Blahnik, Paul Smith, Milton Langum, Teddy Drake, John Ferraiolo, Sam Martin, Jerry Loy, Richard Sprout and James Wass.

Decorations will be arranged by Mmes. Paul Smith, Blahnik and Power.

Mother, Daughter Doll Tea Slated Here Tomorrow

Mothers, Daughters and Dolls will meet for their annual tea tomorrow at the Civic Auditorium.

Sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department, between 200 and 300 mothers and daughters are expected to participate.

Prizes will be awarded for the oldest, largest, smallest, best foreign, funniest and prettiest dolls. Awards will also go to the best bride doll, best collection, most realistic and most unusual dolls.

Entertainment will include a puppet show production of "The Three Bears," an Indian Rain song and a modern dance program under the direction of Judy Weiss Lindsay.

Mother and daughter fashions will be modeled by teams representing each play area in the city.

Refreshments will be served and all mothers and daughters in the area invited to attend.

This year the tea has been organized by the staff at McMaster's Park.

DOLL TEA—Mrs. Louis Dyer and daughter, Dieder, 10, top their doll's finery with a summer straw hat as they prepare to attend the Mother and Daughter Doll Tea tomorrow at 1:30 at Torrance Civic Auditorium. The annual summer tea is sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department.

Annual Barbecue Set by Harbor Foundation

Mrs. Ralph Spurlock, president of the Harbor Area Exceptional Children's Foundation today announced the beginning of an all-out ticket sales campaign for the Foundation's Annual Beef Barbecue to be held Sunday, September 6, at 3 p.m., at the school for retarded children, 2520 Signal St., Outer Harbor, San Pedro.

Food for the barbecue will again be prepared by local businessman Don Smith, well known in the Harbor area for his pit-barbecue recipe. The menu includes beef, baked beans, salad and rolls.

Last year's barbecue, the first one held at the Foundation's school, was a huge success and Foundation members are preparing this year for a record crowd of people.

Barbecue tickets, now available for a donation of $1 per person, may be obtained from any Foundation parent or member or at the school office on Signal Street.

Mrs. Spurlock also announced that summer classes at the school for retarded children are now in session five days a week from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Classes, which will run until August 14th, offer a combination of academic, recreational and crafts subjects. Parents wishing to enroll their child in the Summer Session may still do so by calling in person at the school office or by telephoning TErminol 1-1211.

COTTON BALL—From left, Mmes. W. C. Conger, dance chairman; C. K. Bongard, auxiliary president; and R. W. Hogue, secretary of the Southwood Little League's annual Cotton Ball, get together with scissors and thread to work on a cotton creation for the affair. The dance will be held at the Eagles' Hall, 128 South Catalina St., Redondo Beach, Saturday from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Ticket donations at $2 per person may be obtained from team managers or at the door. Music will be provided by the Marrazzo Trio.

Modesto Weekend

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Runge and children, Cheryl, Eldon, Robyn, and Ted spent the weekend of the 4th at Modesto, California with relatives. The family enjoyed the drive through the fruit orchards, and lots of fishing.

Mrs. Runge is Press chairman for Stephen M. White PTA for the 1959-60 term.
