Junior's to Operate 'Nickle Pitch' Booth

Juniors topped their civic activities this week with work on their carnival booth for Rancho Days, July 22 to 26.

The "Nickle Pitch" booth will include the participation of over half of the members of the club, states Mrs. A. R. Felando, Jr., chairman in charge. Several provisional members and husbands will also take part in the carnival arrangements.

Members of the club will take turns in the booth itself during the carnival. Proceeds from the "nickle pitch" will go towards the club's main philanthropy of the year, the remodeling of the YMCA.

The four sided booth will be covered by a gay canopy, announces Mrs. Felando, and club members will paint the big carnival posters planned to decorate the sides.

Davis, Crull Names Linked in Marriage

Miss Nora J. Davis, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Rains of 3311 W. 189th St., became the bride of James E. Crull the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Crull, Los Angeles at ceremonies performed at the First Methodist Church of Torrance July 4.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her stepfather, wearing a gown of white flocked nylon and lace with a four tiered skirt. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and carnations.

Rev. Peter Lee officiated at the service with Miss Charlotte Davis the bride's sister as maid of honor and Edward Crull as best man.

Other attendants were: Miss Linda Davis, the bride's sister and Mrs. Doris Easley, sister of the bridegroom. Flower girls were Cynthia Rains and Deborah Chism.

Identical gowns in yellow and blue embroidered net over taffeta were worn by the maid of honor and bridesmaids. The maid of honor carried yellow and the attendants pink carnations.

Completing the wedding party were ushers Giles T. Chism, Thomas Vaughan and John Huber.

The new Mrs. Davis is a graduate of Gardena High School. The bridegroom graduated from Torrance High School.

A reception honoring the young couple followed the ceremony with Mrs. Nora Chism registering the guests.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Maude Brinkman of Kansas City.

On return from their honeymoon to Tulare and San Francisco the couple will make their home in Los Angeles.

Puppets Perform at Local School

A complete cast of puppets put in an appearance at 223rd St. Elementary School Monday afternoon.

Miss Patty Francis, a puppeteer with many years experience, entertained the children with her full repertoire at a 3 p.m. performance in the auditorium.

The puppet program, sponsored by the Youth Services Division of the Los Angeles Schools, is a new addition to the summer play-ground activities, announces Charles Mosher, playground director.

Many other special activities are planned during the summer months at 223rd school with Miss Barbara Willis as play leader.

Planning makes it fun

... and one of the most important of those plans is a savings plan. A college education for the kids, a new home, a vacation trip, a nest egg for retirement ... so many things require money.

CARBIDE people have available to them a

Savings Plan that really helps their money grow. After they have had one year of Company service, the Company adds 10 per cent to their savings. After two years, 20 per cent. After three years, and from then on, 30 per cent.

It's a wonderful way to save.
