

Open House Tea Slated for Rancho Days

Torrance Woman's Club has taken advantage of the city-wide celebration of Rancho Days in slating its Open House Tea this coming Thursday.

The informal affair will be held at the clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave. from 1:30 to 3 p.m. with all local women invited.

The Torrance Woman's Club and Junior Woman's Club feel that the expansion of the city in the past few years has kept them from reaching many women that would like to become part of the organization.

Residents will have an opportunity to meet some of the Club's Life Members who will pour, and Past Presidents, who will be the official welcoming committee. Brief, informative speeches by some of the club's officers and chairmen, will give the guests an insight into the work and aims of the group.

Women's Council to See Foreign Slides Tomorrow

L. Patrick J. Kelley, CHC, USNR, of Long Beach, will show slides of Italy, Rome and Lourdes tomorrow at the Ladies of Columbus, Ava Maria Council No. 3, July social.

Thursday the group held its Annual Mothers' and children's picnic at Hawthorne Park, reports Mrs. Henry Dukes, deputy grand lady, Lawndale.

At a recent meeting of the council held at the K of C Hall in Hawthorne, it was announced that Mrs. George Itner has accepted the charities chairmanship for the coming year. A committee meeting will be held in the near future.

One of the many charities of the organization is a mission in Baja California.

Rev. Mario Menghini, a Verona Father, was recently the recipient of a check in the amount of $650 to help defray the cost of building at Santiago, B.C.

BETSY ROSS CLUB

Nuptial Vows Unite School Sweethearts

High school sweethearts, Miss Frankie Jane Talbot and James M. Mayo were joined in marriage at the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd, Saturday at 8 p. m.

Pastor Lester Peterson read the vows uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendall M. Kumley, 1926 W. 240 St., Lomita, to the son of Mrs. Bill Rogers of 25350 Cypress Ave.

Gowned in a floor length bridal dress of white lace and net the bride approached the altar on the arm of her father.

Her dress was styled with a round neck line and three quarter length sleeves, and her fingertip veil fell from a pearl crown. The bridal bouquet was composed of an orchid centerpiece surrounded by stephanotis.

Mrs. Dario Bardini served the bride as Matron of honor with Miss Roseanna Kennedy acting as bridesmaid.

The maid of honor's dress was of taffeta and pink chiffon and both attendants carried cascade bouquets of pink gladioli.

Completing the wedding party was Richard Hammack as best man and James Jeter, Glen Talbot and Clary Banks as ushers.

The bride's mother wore a blue lace dress with white accessories for the occasion, while the bridegroom mother chose a light beige ensemble with apricot accessories. Both mothers wore white orchid corsages.

Soloist Shirley Washburn was accompanied by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Morton Rumley, as she sang "Because" and other appropriate wedding music.

Following the ceremonies the newlyweds were honored with a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

Both the bride and the bridegroom attended Narbonne High School. The bridegroom previously served for three years with the U. S. Army and is now employed as a longshoreman.

Upon return from their honeymoon in Bakersfield the couple will make their home at 2179 Sepulveda Blvd.

'Starlight' Benefit Ticket Deadline Given at Meet

Conversation was keyed to the coming "Starlight Spectacular" benefit at Marineland when members of the Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary met recently at St. Lawrence Martyr parish hall, Redondo Beach.

Ticket donations to the benefit were distributed by chairmen, Mmes. James Fornelli and Theresa Fajan. Mrs. R. L. Moffitt, benefit chairman, announced that the deadline for reservations will be tomorrow and explained that proceeds will go towards furnishing the nursery of the hospital that will be completed here in September.

Mrs. Laurence E. Smith, second vice-president modeled the uniform to be worn by the hospital volunteers. The light blue dacron pinafore will be worn with white blouse and shoes.

The volunteers contribution to the hospital was the subject of the talk by guest speaker Rev. Charles Ara, assistant pastor of St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic Church, Redondo Beach.

Refreshments were served by the officers and chairmen, under the direction of Mrs. Smith, hospitality chairman.

The next meeting of the group will be held August 4 at the par-
