Butcher Held in Stabbing

A butcher, accused of stabbing his son-in-law with a steak knife was released from custody Monday when the victim refused to prosecute.

William Ira Branan, 63, of 1222 1/4 Cota Ave., was booked on suspicion of attempted murder Saturday night after he allegedly inflicted a chest wound on his son-in-law, Ronald Roy Parks, 21. Parks, who is in fair condition at Harbor General Hospital, told officers that Branan came to his home, 2119 1/2 Andro St., and an argument ensued over ownership of an automobile.

During the exchange of words, Parks was cut by a steak knife, and following first aid by police, was rushed to the hospital.

Police released Branan Monday after Parks refused to sign a complaint against him.

CHILDREN LEARN SPANISH—Kindergarten and first grade students in Mrs. Aurora de Luzardo's class at Carr Elementary School are learning elementary Spanish this summer. Learning the names of colors from a chart are Stanley Fujii, Ralph Henkhaus and Caprice Rutkowsky. Mrs. de Luzardo, a native of Venezuela, has done extensive language work, including work for the State Department.

County Offers Plans

Plans and specifications for major capital improvements will be made available to cities by the county, the City Council was informed Tuesday. The county offered to let cities use plans of buildings it has already constructed to save on architectural costs.

Ice Cream Man Loses His Music

An ice cream vendor lost his good humor Monday when he informed police that a thief had stolen a $100 music box from a truck while parked in a drive-in restaurant at Torrance and Hawthorne Blvds.

The unhappy note was struck by Dave Grossman, of 18412 Roslin Ave., when he filed a thief report.

From Hills to Harbor...

EVERYBODY...

LOVES THAT 4%

You'll love that 4%, too... because now it's more convenient than ever to save at Glendale Federal. The map tells the story. From hills to harbor there's a Glendale Federal office nearby. Newest are the San Pedro and Lomita offices—a result of our merger with First Federal Savings of San Pedro. It's a very happy and successful joining of forces since it brings to the rapidly developing Palos Verdes peninsula and dynamic Harbor Area the great resources of the nation's 6th largest Federal Savings and Loan Association. With assets of over $278-million and reserves of more than $20-million, your savings enjoy double safety as each account is insured up to $10,000... backed by the strength of these assets and unusually high reserves. Increased services... The "joining together" offers you more services than ever before. Not only the friendly services you're accustomed to—but also those that belong exclusively to the Glendale Federal tradition... developed over 24 successful years of community service. Open your account today, and discover for yourself the many advantages of saving at the new Home of the Thrift Twins.
