Riviera Demos Plan Pancake Breakfast Here

The annual pancake breakfast, sponsored by the Hollywood Riviera Democratic Club, will be held Sunday at El Retiro Park, 126 Vista del Parque, from 8 a. m. to 12 noon. Donation is $1 for adults and 50 cents for children. In conjunction with the breakfast, Hollywood Riviera Democratic Club will host the 17th Congressional District Democratic Council meeting.

Howard Stallman, president of the club, said, "This will be the kick-off for the 1959 Dollars for Democrats drive." All those planning to attend may contact Stallman at Frontier 5-3929.

Reliability Run Slated Aug. 23

A Reliability and Poker Run will be staged here Aug. 23, with all youths with valid driver's licenses eligible to participate.

Officer A. L. Jackson, coordinator of the event, said that the route of the event will be secret with drivers to be rated on a predetermined time between check points.

The run will start at noon and leave from the city hall parking lot.

Shrine Convention

More than 50,000 Shriners and their wives from 14 states, Hawaii, Mexico, and Alaska will converge on Los Angeles Aug. 6, 7, and 8 for the Western Shrine Convention, announced Potentate Les White of Al Malakiah, host temple.

Chamber Requests Parking Survey

Request that the city conduct a survey of available parking spaces in the downtown area was made this week by the Chamber of Commerce.

The board of directors urged that the study of spaces on parking lots be made without expense to the taxpayers. One suggestion was to use firemen for the job. The Chamber also pointed out the old city hall could be reconstructed at minor cost to accommodate 30 additional cars.
