

Group Guests of Polynesian

The bridge group formed by members of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club were the guests of the Polynesian Restaurant Wednesday.

The group met with their husbands for an evening of party bridge in a secluded room opening onto a private outdoor patio.

Those attending were Messrs. and Mrs. Don Carlson, Charles F. Crandan; Charles H. Turner; John M. Stokley; Richard N. Oliver; James E. Waters; A. R. Felando, Jr.; Edward D. Alken.

Top scores for the evening went to Mrs. Edward Alken among the women and Charles Crandall among the men.

Saturday Nuptials Unite Allen, Turner

Wedding vows were exchanged by Miss Roberta Diane Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Allen of 3774 West 171 St., and Robert M. Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Turner of 1632 Torrance Blvd. at 10 a.m. services at St. Catherine Labourer Church, Saturday.

The bride dressed in a gown featuring a lace top, long pointed lace sleeves and a full skirt with a lace panel in front and back, was given in marriage by her father.

Her gown was complemented with a pointed cap with a pearl on the forehead and crown on top, and she carried a white orchid on her white bible.

Mrs. Dave Ladd served the bride as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Fred Lee, Margaret Allen and Georgia Powell. Completing the wedding party, Michael Turner acted as best man and James Thomas, Michael Rogers and John Simson served as ushers.

Carl Allen acted as ring bearer and little Cynthia Martin wearing a full yellow nylon dress and carrying carnations and rose petals served as flower girl.

The bride's mother chose an aqua taffeta dress with lace over top for the occasion. The mother of the bridegroom chose a blue taffeta dress with lace over the top and a white lace jacket.

Following the wedding a reception for the newlyweds was held at the pool side patio of the bride's parents home.

The bride is a graduate of North High School '59. The bridegroom is employed by the American Standard Company.

The young couple will make their new home in Torrance.

Local Couple Attend Flower Fanciers' Tea

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Stone attended a tea given by Mrs. Edwin Vick of 212 Highland Ave., Hollywood, last Sunday.

The tea was given in honor of the first vice president of the International Geranium Society, Mrs. Mary Allen Ross of Camden, Maine.

The afternoon was spent in social conversation, going over Geranium magazines and viewing the many Geranium plants grown by Mrs. Vick.

Mrs. Elsa Stone served two years as recording secretary and show entry clerk of the Southwest Branch of the International Geranium Society. She was recently re-appointed to the second year as delegate to the "Friends of Plummer Park."

The Southwest Branch of the International Geranium Society meets the fourth Wednesday of each month in the Great Hall of Plummer Park.

Second of Card Series This Saturday

The Women's Council of St. Philomena's Church will follow the success of its first evening card party with a second get-together of the summer series this Saturday at 8 p.m.

According to Mrs. Victor Spielman, chairman of the party, the usual games of Bridge, 500 and Pinochle will be played, with Buncle as diversion for those who do not play cards.

Prizes will be awarded for high scorers in each game, as well as numerous door prizes to holders of lucky tally cards. The party will be held at the School Hall, 21900 South Main St. with a nominal admission fee charged.

'East Lynne' Boasts Villian, 'Old Time Plot'

"Sex, humility and quarts of tears," in the words of Bennett Cerf, sum up the grand old drama "East Lynne" now playing at the Hermosa Beach Playhouse. This is the centennial production of Mrs. Henry Wood's immortal play, one of the nineteen longest running plays ever produced in the U. S. A.

"I've seen those features before, I'm certain of it. But where could it have been?" This utterance of Archibald Carlyle as he sees his fallen wife, Lady Isobel, returning to his home in the capacity of governess, is the flash point of "East Lynne."

Yes, why does Lady Isobel fall? Is it the wicked baronet whispering falsehoods in her ear, or is it her own blind jealousy of Barbara Hare, the girl next door, who angles gently but persistently for her husband? Whatever it is, she elopes with Sir Francis Levison and inexorably falls, and her words in the poignant exile scene in France still apply to all women: "Oh, lady, wife, mother! whatever trials may be the lot of your married life, resolve to bear them. I have sacrificed husband, home, children, friends and all that makes life of value to woman—and for what?"

"East Lynne" must be seen. This grand old play is an equal delight for the actors and the audience. You can hiss to your hearts delight while Ed Siani, the villain, actually seems to thrive on it.

Don't be surprised to see the actors turning up before the curtain to sing oleos. It's all in the fun of the thing, and if you're a good deep bass or a bell-like soprano, you are urged to join in.

Reservations may be obtained by calling FRontier 2-5000.

"East Lynne," exactly one hundred years old, has been given a rousing revival under the direction of Charles Gray. The ebullient cast is teeming with promise and the whole evening is a wonderful example of joyful reciprocity—for, if the actors play to the hilt, so does the audience.

Revivalist Slated for Foursquare Church Meetings

Rev. James P. Lowen, pastor of the Torrance Foursquare Church, Arlington and Sepulveda Blvds., announces that the nationally known revivalist, Rev. Kenneth Hagin of Fort Worth, Texas, is scheduled to begin a two week series of meetings at the church, beginning Sunday, at 10:45 a.m.

Evangelist Hagin is known for his faith-building messages. Having been raised from a death bed—by believing prayer, Evangelist Hagin presents his down-to-earth message in a way that will stir the most dormant faith to believe God for all that the bible promises, states Rev. Lowen.

Hagin will give a series of studies on bible faith every morning at 10 a.m. Evangelist Hagin's revival meetings have taken him cross country a number of times and into Canada as well. Much sought after as a convention speaker, his ministry is said to complement that of Rev. Oral Roberts.
