

Juniors Prepare for Coming "Flea" Market

Members of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club are busy preparing for their "Flea Market" Bazaar, August 29, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Torrance Civic Auditorium.

The entire proceeds from the project will be going toward the remodeling of the interior of the YMCA building in Torrance, which is the major philanthropy of the club.

All types of items will be presented for sale at the bazaar including white elephants, children's rummage, small living plants, toys, patterns, small furniture, books, jewelry, cooking utensils, etc.

Last year's Christmas cards will be sold at reduced prices, and orders will be taken for the year's selection of cards. Restaurant ticket books, another main

Church Faces Financial Problem

A critical situation is announced by the finance committee of Seaside Community Church, 230th St., and Ocean Ave.

By March, the church must have enough money in its treasury to pay a $4,800.40 note owed to the Board of National Missions of the Evangelical and Reformed Church for a property and building loan.
