

Couples United in Fashionable Nuptials

Marti Fowler Becomes Bride of Larry Goff at Wayfarer's Chapel

Gowned in an original Cahill bridal creation, Miss Marti Fowler became the bride of Larry R. Goff at ceremonies performed at the Wayfarer's Chapel Friday evening at 7:30 p.m.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Klein of 2039 W. 233rd St., carried a bouquet of intermingled white orchids and stephanotis encircled by carnations and baby green ivy touched with pearls.

Her bridal gown was fashioned of imported chantilly lace, styled along princess lines and set off with a full sweeping chapel train. The dress featured a portrait neckline of tulle and three-quarter length sleeves.

Her fingertip veil was attached to a crown of imported chantilly lace embroidered with pearls and sequins.

Serving the bride as maid of honor, Miss Barbara Bana wore a dress of white nylon organza with a bodice of embroidered pink roses. Satin shoes dyed pink to match the gown added the final touch to her ensemble.

Bridesmaids, Misses Georgia Sanford and Judy Goff, the bridegroom's sister, wore dresses identical to the maid of honor's.

Little Linda Darlene Hanson as flower girl was dressed in a frock of pink nylon organza over white. The bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Goff of 1876 Lincoln Ave., was served by Howard Brady as best man.

Completing the wedding party were ushers, Jack Boal and Jack Stassin.

Following the double ring ceremony performed by Rev. A. Knox, a reception for the newlyweds was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

A four-tiered wedding cake with pink roses was served the 200 guests attending. The home

MRS. ROBERT W. MCFARLAND

McFarland, Hardin Names Linked in Marriage

The First Baptist Church of Torrance served as the setting for the August 1 wedding uniting Miss Judith Ann Hardin and Robert W. McFarland in marriage. The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon H. Hardin of 20857 South Denker St. was escorted to the altar by her father.

She wore a chantilly lace gown fashioned with a Queen Anne collar. The dress featured long pointed sleeves her illusion veil was attached to a Queen Crown and she carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with an orchid corsage.

Miss Arlene Martin wearing a yellow chantilly lace and net corsage and carrying a bouquet of yellow chantilly lace and her corsage of honor.

Melinda Priest wore blue dress and matching hat and carried a blue basket of baby pink roses in her hand as flower girl.

The bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. McFarland of 112 Quincy St., Belmont Shores, was served by Richard D. Young as best man.

Authentic Island Dress Seen at BPW Dinner

Mrs. Clara Conner, Torrance Postmaster was chosen the "Hawaiian Look" girl at the Business and Professional Woman's party at the Polynesian Restaurant Tuesday evening.

The party, saluting Hawaii and the club's community press month, featured an island menu and atmosphere.

Lovely leis fashioned by Mrs. Jack Hahn, president, were presented to the women as they arrived.

A cocktail hour was followed by dinner, Hawaiian style, with fashions shown throughout the evening.

Hawaiian muu muu were worn by the club members, many of whom have recently visited the islands. Mrs. Conner in an authentic muu muu carried out the traditional dress by wearing a flower wristlet, island shoes and a flower over her left ear.

Guests at the meeting were the society editors from local newspapers.

Sorority Holds Poolside Party

Eta Mu Chapter of Epsilon Alpha held a recent pool party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Johnston.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Bry were hosts for the evening event attended by the members and their husbands.

Special guests for the evening of dancing were Mr. and Mrs. Bud Hodge and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Paul.

The Chapter recently presented the Harbor Area Exceptional Children's Foundation with a check for $150. The check was received by Violet McCormick, principal of the school.

MRS. LARRY R. GOFF —Photo by Croffy

Perry School Honors President

Coffee and rolls were served at a farewell coffee hour, July 23, honoring John Strom, principal of Perry School, who has been transferred to another school. Hostess was Mrs. Richard Greenwald with Board Members and Robert Allen, new principal attending.

All parents of kindergartners and new students are invited to attend a "Welcome Tea" on Thursday Sept. 3, from 2 to 4 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

Friendship Meeting

Torrance Women of the Moose will hold a party for members and friends tomorrow evening at the home of co-worker Maggy Licht, 1618 West 216th St. All attending will bring gifts.

Arrangements for next month's Friendship meeting at the home of Norma Davis, co-worker, were discussed at the recent meeting of the Friendship committee at the home of co-worker Francis Coble.

A Chapter birthday meeting, open to the public, is announced for August 28th at Moose Hall.

MARY NETH, WOMAN'S EDITOR

TELEPHONE FAirfax 8-2345

Sunday Luau Planned by Columbus Ladies

Ladies of Columbus, Ave Maria Council of Hawthorne will have a benefit luau Sunday, at the K. of C. Hall, 331 Birch Street, Hawthorne.

Mrs. Henry Dukes of Lawndale, chairman of the event, announces that dinner will be served island style by Sorenson's Catering Service and music for dancing provided by Hal Stokes' "Islanders."

Door prizes will be awarded. A social hour will be held from 6:30 until 7:30 p.m. Following dinner will be served at $3.50 per person.

Assisting Mrs. Dukes with final preparations are Mmes. Lewis Gleason and George Itner, ticket chairmen. Mrs. Robert Staehr is in charge of beverages. Mrs. George Dion, decorations, Mmes. Jerome Essner and Salvatore Locavera, door prizes.

Women

for and about

Nuptial Vows Unite Sandusky, Eyster

Baskets of white gladiolas and mums decorated the First Baptist Church of Torrance for the August 15 wedding of Barbara Sandusky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Sandusky of 1651 West 215 St. and Richard Eyster, son of Mrs. Elsie Erickson of Torrance.

The bride wearing a chantilly lace over taffeta gown was escorted to the altar by her father. Her ballerina length gown featured a large white satin bow at the waist in front and a wide satin waist band. The neckline was styled in a round scoop fashion. Her shoulder length illusion veil fell from a crown of white hearts, and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis centered on a white bible.

Miss Alice Navarro served the bride as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Bette Boyd, and Marguarita Davis. All of the attendants wore identical sheath dresses of emerald green taffeta. The maid of honor carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and the bridesmaids nosegays of white and green carnations.

Bill Sandusky served in the role of best man with ushers Frank Eyster and Ronnie Omohundro as ushers.

Immediately following the wedding a reception in honor of the newlyweds was held at the church.

The bride graduated from Narbonne High School in 1958 and attended Harbor Junior College for one year. The bridegroom is a graduate of Narbonne High School, 1957, and is now employed by the Lucky Market in Torrance.

Following a week's honeymoon in Laguna Beach the couple will make their home in Lomita.

MRS. RICHARD C. EYSTER Photo by Seeman

Foreign Students to Make Torrance Home

Two foreign exchange students arrived in Torrance this morning. Reggio Emilia, from Northern Italy and Walter Stocker from Zurich, Switzerland were met by the Coulter and Crossman families when their American Airlines plane landed at International airport at 6:15 a.m.

Reggio will reside with Mr. and Mrs. Coulter of 26929 Ridgeville Drive, and will attend South High School. Walter who will attend Torrance High School will live with Mr. and Mrs. Crossman of 2143 Middlebrook Road.

Mrs. Coulter is President and Mrs. Crossman, Education Chairman of the Delta Gamma Chapter of the Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority and Mrs. Coulter is entertaining the Chapter, August 29th at an informal swimming party.

Hi Neighbor's Fashion Show

Colorful umbrellas decorated the garden-patio of the Ralph Madden home, 2018 West 180th St. for the Hi Neighbor Club's recent fashion show and buffet luncheon.

Door prizes were donated by Mmes. Sander Olsen and Reddie Furr. Mrs. Jay Hammonds won the tea towel set, Mrs. Charles Hill the apron and pot holder set and Mrs. Carl Holmes the blanket storage bag.

Patricia Akers and Carol Markworth acted as waitresses and Mmes. Louis Ambrosio and Sander Olsen modeled the fashions.

Kids 'Tinkerbell' Party Slated by Broadway

The Broadway Del Amo is having an exciting party for children. This is the Tinkerbell Magic Party which will be held on August 22nd at 2:30 p.m. in the Terrace Patio.

It will be presided over by Tinkerbell herself. A charming little lady who invited all her young friends to come to her magic party. The stars of the party are Mary and Bill Chaudet, the world famous illusionists and magicians. The talented Chaudets are well-known on television having appeared nationally on the Bob Crosby, Eddie Cantor and Lawrence Welk programs. Southern California viewers have also seen them on local television, including the Al Jarvis Show, Circus Time, Bandstand Revue and many others.

Free balloons and soft drinks are given to the guests, as well as many beautiful door prizes. Tickets for the party are available in the Subteen Department of the Broadway, at no charge.

Fall Festival Topic of Recent PTA Board Meet

The fall festival, Clown Fun, was the main topic at the recent PTA board meeting of the 259th Place School held at Lomita Park. The festival will be held on Friday, September 25 from 5 to 8 p.m.

The program for the coming year was ratified. The theme for the year will be Show Us the Way. There will be more classroom participation in the programs. Some of the topics will be a panel discussion by the teachers, a do-it-yourself fashion show, a film and talk on cancer and a program by the school's youth organizations.

Miss Francis Dastarac, the school principal, said that new students to the school could register from Sept. 1 until the beginning of school except Labor Day. The office staff would appreciate parents using the hours from 9-11 a.m. and from 1:30-3 p.m.

To register for kindergarten a child must have his fifth birthday on or before December 2, and to register for first-grade a child must have his sixth birthday on or before December 2, 1959.

For best results phone your ad to Press classified, FA 8-2345.

MRS. WILLIAM E. KOEHN Photo by Seeman

Nuptial Services Unite Koehn and Marrs

Gowned in an embroidered white tulle wedding dress, Miss Barbara J. Marrs exchanged vows with William E. Koehn at nuptial services at Christ the King Lutheran Church, August 15 at 3 p.m. The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Batchelor of 1933 W. 148th St., Gardena, carried a bouquet of white orchids and roses. Her gown featured a lace, trimmed sabrina neckline.

Nancy Joe DeMoss served as the Maid of Honor with Ellen Strumpher, Mary Lou Schroeder, Nancy Young and Maureen Marrs as bridesmaids.

The bridegroom the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. McBride of Cedar Pines Park, chose Tom Koehn as best man. Ushers were Donald Strumpher, Dick Arnold and Bill Marrs. Jeffrey Boville acted as ring bearer and Susay Jones wearing a red taffeta dress, carried a basket of red and white roses in her role of flower girl.

Rev. Mynard Mithun performed the double ring services with a reception for the newlyweds following at the church.

The young Mrs. Koehn is employed as a Triumph car salesman, the bridegroom works for the Palos Verdes Water Company.

On return from a week long honeymoon at Catalina the couple will make their home at 1226 1/2 Date St.

Baker, Billings United in Marriage

Miss Charlene Elizabeth Baker became the bride of Vincent Lee Billings at ceremonies at the Halvetson Leavell Chapel, August 14, at 8 p.m.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Baker of 1962 West 222nd St., wore a gown of chantilly lace with nylon tulle for the ceremonies and carried a bouquet of intermingled stephanotis, carnations and orchids.

She approached the altar on the arm of her father. Services uniting the couple were read by Bishop Donald Weir.

Dixie Bergen dressed in blue taffeta and carrying a bouquet of white carnations and pink roses acted as maid of honor. Bridesmaids carrying identical bouquets and wearing pastel gowns were Donna Isbell, Barbara Smith and Jean McLachlan.

Jack Davis served the bridegroom, the son of Mrs. Ethel Billings of 2467 Sonoma Ave., as best man. Ushers were Darrell Billings, Ronald Billings, Donald Baker, Melvin Campbell and George Strayer.

Richard Clark acted as ring bearer and Joy Fernole wearing an orchid taffeta and lace dress as flower girl.

A reception honoring the newlyweds was held at the Masonic Lodge following the wedding.

The bride is a graduate of Torrance High School and Brigham Young University, Utah, and has been employed by Hughes Aircraft. The bridegroom graduated from Torrance High School and is now employed at Jesse's Richfield Station.

Following a honeymoon trip the couple will make their home at 22328 1/2 Harvard Blvd.

Mrs. Amato to Speak at First 'Round Table'

Mrs. Donald Amato, President, California Federation of Women's Clubs, Junior Membership, will be guest speaker at the first Marina District Round Table Aug. 24 at the Santa Monica Bay Women's Club. Hostess Club will be the Santa Monica Juniors.

State Chairman Mrs. Leonard Comer, Dianas, gerontology and health and Mrs. Richard J. Collins, Pacific Palisades, parliamentarian will also be present, announced Mrs. Robert Dreizler, president, Marina District, Jr. membership.

Coordinators from the eleven district clubs have been invited to attend this opening session.

The Marina District Junior Membership Board will be introduced to the Clubwomen. The budget and agenda for the year will be included in the evening's business.

Local Girl Lutheran Grad

Dianne Dillenbeck of 4507 Sharynne Lane, a member of the first graduation class of Immanuel Lutheran School, Redondo Beach, will attend Lutheran High School in Los Angeles this fall.

All members of the class were accepted into the Immanuel Lutheran Church through rites of confirmation in June.

The school will open its doors for the fourth year, September 10. This year for the first time three teachers will comprise the staff. In addition to the principal who will teach grades 7 and 8, teachers will be Miss Dianna Hartelt, who will instruct grades 4, 5, and 6 and Mrs. Doris Sternberg who will teach the primary classes.

MRS. VINCENT LEE BILLINGS Photo by Seeman