

Speaker Sees Great Growth of Space Age Industry Here

Art or science, missile creativeness in the space-atomic age has brought greater industrial potential to the Southwest L. A. district and promises limitless opportunities for scientific achievement here for the future.

Thus spoke John Berthelet, of Space Technology Labs, a Division of the Ramo-Wooldrige Corporation, before members of the Rolling Hills Toastmaster Club at its meeting last week. The Club meets Wednesday nights at the Smith Bros. Restaurant, 4020 Pacific Coast Highway, Waverly.

Berthelet's speech won him the Club's coveted trophy for the best address of the evening.

The audience, composed of educators and young executives of the Torrance - Redondo Beach - Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills areas, heard Berthelet stress the remarkable contributions made in this area to space age achievement. He emphasized the importance of the rapidly developing program of Systems Engineering "now taking place right in our own back yard."

"The great Southwest area of Los Angeles County, in which we live and work is now undergoing a transition to virtual metropolitan industrial status," declared

Normandie Ave. Widening Step Taken by Board

In preparation for the improvement and widening of Normandie avenue between 168th st. and Dominguez channel south of 174th st. the Board of Supervisors has adopted a resolution acquiring jurisdiction over the roadway, Supervisor Kenneth Hahn announced this week.

Hahn said that bids for the improvement of Normandie will be opened by the Board of Supervisors on September 1.

Plans for the project call for widening the roadway to four lanes, plus paved shoulders. Work will also include curbs and gutters. Completion of the half-mile of improvements will bring this segment of Normandie, which is
