NEW BRANCH—Expanding his real estate activities, Charles Quintard, realtor, this week announced the opening of his new office at 14331 Crenshaw Blvd. Quintard, whose main office is at 4314 Century Blvd., Inglewood, has served residents of the Centinela and Gardena Valleys for 13 years.

25,000 Students Seen in Fall

Students will report to classes on Sept. 10, although orientation sessions will be held for high school freshmen the previous day. Bus schedules will be announced shortly.

Strikes have delayed construction work on additions to North and South High and Edison, Waveria, Steele, and Madrona Elementary Schools. Some NHS and SHS classrooms may be ready by the opening of school, but some temporary use of rooms not usually used for classes may be necessary, according to Assistant Superintendent S. E. Waldrip.

Time Estimate

He estimated that the additions would be ready within 60 days and "probably much sooner." Construction jobs are being speeded as much as possible, he said.

Completion of seven new school plants last year will drop double session figures considerably from last year's opening figure of 4530. Opening double session figures will be about 3500, but these will drop with completion of the additions at Edison, Waveria, Steele, and Madrona in the fall and of additions at Anza, Arlington, Newton, Lincoln, and Sepulveda later in the school year.

Double session, because of Fern-Greenwood students are on earthquake-proofing of the Fern building, a job which should be completed early in 1966. Also slated for opening early next year is Adams Elementary School, 238th and Arlington, which will relieve double sessions at Wood School.

Question marks in the attendance picture are large new tracts of homes being built in the Victor Tract and scheduled at the corner of Sepulveda and Crenshaw.

Classes will be in session for 176 days, ending next June 10. Holidays are scheduled for Veterans' Day, Nov. 11; Thanksgiving, Nov. 26 and 27; Christmas-New Years, Dec. 23-Jan. 1; Lincoln's Birthday, Feb. 12; Washington's Birthday, Feb. 22; Easter, April 11-15; and Memorial Day, May 30.

Schools which will have new principals this fall include Casimir, Martin Beaudet; Hillside, John W. Strom; Newton, C. Richard Wallner; Perry, Robert D. Allen; Seaside, William Zecher; Waveria, Victor Kilburn; and Wood, Donald Mullaney.

Seek Signals for Intersections

(Continued from page one) Earlier yesterday the group appeared before the State Highway Commission to ask that the funds be allocated for construction of the San Diego Freeway between Jefferson Blvd. in Culver City, and 190th St. in Torrance.

GETTING READY FOR SCHOOL—Checking off a list of some of the equipment used at Torrance's 31 schools are Howard Clark, warehouse supervisor, and Foy Carpenter. School employees have been busy gathering books, paper, instruments, pencils, brooms, wax, footballs, and all the other supplies necessary to keep a school running. Torrance schools will open again on Thursday, Sept. 10.
