over K. Wouldn't he like that though. And what of our boys then, Mrs. H.

My sincere and humble prayer: "Sprinkle a little extra blessing, God, on our President during this time, and HELP HIM." I believe Torrance IS All-American, not WAS All-American.—Mrs. H. U. Felton.

shown a willingness to work for peace with his enemies. He has shown a true faith in God, our Country AND our City by not being afraid to call to the attention of the State Department that Torrance is an ideal spot to show what is developed in a Christian country through free enterprise under the capitalistic system of America.

I trust the good clergyman has more faith and confidence in Christianity than the balance of his letter indicated.

I know our city officials believe more completely in the American Way than to really think that our city could be corrupted by a flying visit (12 days for the entire U.S.) from the head of the Russian State with all of his unwholesomeness.

Thanks, Mayor, for your belief in our city, its institutions and its PEOPLE.

To the Editor:

Mr. Krushchev would love nothing more than to wear a halo of rotten tomatoes as he tours our countryside. It is inconceivable that at this moment his cohorts are arranging for demonstrations against him.

Ridiculous thought? No, it is communistic psychology, pure and simple. Our open hostility would make wonderful grist for the Communist propaganda mills.

For Krushchev's visit all of us are being asked to do something usually reserved for the diplomatic corps.

We are being asked to hide our personal repugnance for all that he represents and to show only the strength of our own convictions in that which we represent.

Can we refuse to do this with so much at stake?

A vote of confidence to the mayor of Torrance, whose pride in his community and grasp of the psychological principals of the cold war prompted him to extend the invitation along with many other patriotic Americans. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Gerald

To the Editor:

"When a man's ways please the Lord, He maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him."

The above quote from a letter signed David Calderwood, Th.D. (8-20-59) cast a new light on Mayor Albert Isen. His ways must please the Lord as he has

Housewife Struck, Robbed by Pair Who Offered Ride

Two youths were arrested by Torrance detectives after they struck and robbed a woman whom they drove home from a cafe Sunday night.

Booked on suspicion of robbery were Gerald Kringen, 22, of Crestline, and Bobby Joe Smith, 24, of 115 N. Lucia, Redondo Beach.

Mrs. Frieda Schneider, 39, of 21821 Mildred Ave., told police that two men started talking to her while she was in a Redondo Beach cafe, and finally offered her a lift home.

When they arrived in front of her house, she was slugged on the head, pushed out of the car, and her purse, containing $30, was taken, she told police.
