

DINNER AT MARINELAND
Dining with friends at the Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes, where they recently enjoyed the music of Rosy McHargue's Dixieland Band in the "Porpoise Room," were Mr. and Mrs. John Woznick of Torrance. Police Guard Four City Banks in Robbery Scare Torrance police threw up a silent but watchful guard around four city banks Monday after a telephone caller warned of an imminent robbery.

Two branches of the Bank of America, and a branch of both the California and First Western were staked out by police throughout the afternoon and early evening.

When no robbery was attempted, the guard detail was called off.

Anonymous Caller
According to Det. Ralph Walker, an anonymous young woman called the Fairfax line, told the operator that "the bank will be held up this evening," and hung up.

The bank's operations officer, Ed Taylor, reported the call to Police Sgt. Hamilton, and police were dispatched to the scene.

Although the call may have been that of a crank, Walker says the police could take no chances that it was not a genuine warning.

Summer Instruction Ends
Instructional swimming program at Benstead Plunge ends tomorrow, according to Allen E. Pell, activity leader. The new fall swimming schedule will begin on Sept. 10.

DEL AMO MEDICAL CENTER—New medical facilities being constructed at Sepulveda and Hawthorne Blvd. will serve South Bay communities. First phase of the building is scheduled for completion on July 1, 1960; the second phase, an exact duplicate of the first, will begin as soon as the first is finished.

Second Phase of Del Amo Medical Center Is Announced

Plans for a "twin" to adjoin the Del Amo Center Medical Building now under construction were announced recently.

The second phase of the unit will be an exact replica of the 32,500 square foot project now underway at Hawthorne Blvd.

Speaking for the doctor's corporation composed of 20 South Bay doctor's and dentist stockholders, Gene Voorhes, legal counsel, states that the two million project is the result of surveys indicating an immediate need of local medical facilities.

The proposed structure will serve Torrance, Redondo Beach, Hermosa Beach, Lomita, Hawthorne and the Palos Verdes Peninsula.

Buy College Books Early, Warns Director

Some 11,200 potential students of El Camino College will require from one to eight text books each when classes open Sept. 14.

This prediction and an ominous prophecy were elicited today from Marl F. Sloan, director of student personnel, on the local campus.

The prophetic proclamation envisions opening day book store lines as long as a country dozen of blocks and unfilled seats of book purchasers in classrooms manned by ruffled instructors ready to drop the unprepared from lengthy roll call lists.

"Be good scouts and 'Be Prepared,'" the college administrator cautions students. The book store will be open daily, Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Those who consult book lists now posted in the campus facility will avoid missing classes, standing in insufferably long and hot September lines and risking the possibility of early sell-outs of some texts," Sloan advised.
