

SMART WEAR FOR TEENS AND MISSES was modeled at the Job's Daughters' fashion show Monday at Masonic Temple. Jobie models Patty Woodman, in a white nylon organza "after five" with blue satin wrap; Charlotte McComas, wearing a blue jersey cocktail dress, and Judy Alexander in an original GiGi blue nylon-organza, point out how the fashionable teenager will look this fall. Lovely styles for the show were from Moore's Women's Wear, 1274 Sartori Ave., and Neta's Tots and Teens, 1272 Sartori Ave.

for and about Women

MARY NETH, WOMAN'S EDITOR

TELEPHONE FAairfax 8-2345

Steigh and Stephans Joined in Nuptials

Gowned in a wedding dress of chantilly lace and swirling tiers of pleated nylon tulle, Miss Joanne Steigh became the bride of Roy Stephans at ceremonies at St. Matthew Church, 8 p.m. Aug. 28. The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Steigh of 2219 254th St., Lomita, was escorted to the altar by her father.

Her billowing gown featured a bodice trimmed with aurora borealis sequins and long pointed sleeves and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis. Mrs. Robert Mitchell, the bride's sister, served as matron of honor. Her gown was of aqua lace and satin and she carried a colonial bouquet of tinted carnations and matching ribbon.

Bridesmaids Misses Linda Schoelerman in a shrimp-lace and satin gown and Miss Joyce Stephans wearing a dress of yellow lace and satin carried identical colonial bouquets.

Steven Martizia as best man served the bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Stephans of 2050 255th St., Lomita, as best man. Ushers were Robert Mitchell and Thad Ashton.

The bridegroom's mother wore a pink lace dress for the ceremonies and the mother of the bride a dress of beige lace.

Following the wedding rites performed by Rev. Doktor, a reception was held for the newlyweds at the recreation hall of the church.

Misses Mary Ann Frisino and Janet Kirsch acted as punch and coffee servers and Misses Georganne Baker and Kay Woolsey as package girls. Mrs. Thad Ashton was guest book registrar.

The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High School 1959 and is presently employed by the Bank of America. The bridegroom graduated from Narbonne High School in 1958.

Following a honeymoon in Northern California the newlyweds will make their home at 26134 1/2 Narbonne Ave., Lomita.

MRS. ROY STEPHANS — Photo by Stanford's

School Fashion Tips Given at Jobie Show

Torrance Job's Daughters, Bethel 50, are ready for school with a gleam in their eye.

One look at the "Back to School" fashions shown at Monday's luncheon and style show has the girls ready to tote the books again.

Sportswear though after-five dresses were modeled by members of the Bethel for the fashion event chosen by Georgia Powell as her junior princess project.

Shag sweaters, plaids and demure full skirted creations from Moore's Women's Wear, 1274 Sartori and Neta's Tots and Teens, 1272 Sartori, made notes for future shopping sprees.

Red was the color seen as most popular for the school wardrobe with shades of brown and blue taking a close second.

Ruffled slips and full and fancy petticoats will still have a place in the teen and young Miss fashion picture. Two piece outfits featuring both full and straight woolen skirts will be topped by smart wescots and short jackets.

Following the parade of style,

Mrs. Ilene Wood spoke to the girls on food products.

Special guest for the luncheon event was Tamara Knolls, past honored queen of Bethel 57, Wilmington and now Grand Bethel representative, Nebraska.

The show was dedicated to Mrs. Edna Babcock, guardian of the Bethel and a local teacher.

Models were: Carole Carothers, Carole Donaher, Beverly Orend, Midge David, Judy Alexander, Patty Woodman, Bonnie Kail, Charlotte McComas, Pat Clare, Jerry Nancy, Ione Shick, Carole Fowler, Judy Cantor, Nancy Basil, Patti Fowler, Lorene Powell, and Karen Keith.

Evelyn Carr PTA

The Program Committee of Evelyn Carr PTA under the chairmanship of Mrs. Gerald Cunerty met recently to plan the program for the coming year. The theme will be Last Frontier Education. Each month a different frontier of education will be featured. Reading, science, spelling, history, and music will be among the frontiers explored.

Mrs. Perry Baker, president and Richard Wette, principal met with the committee members at Evelyn Carr School.

Anderson and Clark United in Marriage

Floral arrangements of gladiolas and mums decorated the First Christian Church of Lomita for wedding ceremonies uniting Miss Barbara Ann Anderson and Grant C. Clark.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond D. Anderson of 2013 Border Ave., wore a gown of chantilly lace and net over white satin. The bodice of the dress was studded with sequins and pearls and her fingertip veil fell from a pearl studded cap. She carried a white orchid surrounded by white rose buds and stephanotis.

Miss Joyce Gordon, wearing a ballerina dress of blue chiffon with a lace jacket fastened with black satin bows, acted as maid of honor.

Bridesmaids, Misses Beverly Anderson and Bette Macias, wore identical gowns of pink chiffon and carried matching blue bouquets.

Harold Clark served the bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Thomas Clark, as best man. Ushers were, Don Boyce and Stanfred Smith. David Clark acted as ring bearer and Linda Hansen, the bride's cousin, as flower girl.

Soloists Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Webb sang "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life" and "God Gave Me You." They were accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Eleanor Hones.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the church parlor. Miss Ginger Hayden acted as registrar for the 250 guests attending.

The bride, a graduate of Torrance High School, is employed by Newberry's. The bridegroom attended Pepperdine College and is presently employed by the Broadway.

The newlyweds are presently spending their honeymoon at Yosemite.

League Sets Foreign Policy Workshop Date

The last Foreign Policy Summer Workshop of the League of Women Voters, Palos Verdes Estates, will be held Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. at the home of Miss Ione Messner, 705 Esplanade, Redondo Beach.

The League will begin its second year of the two-year national study program this Fall with emphasis on the United States economic and technical assistance policies.

In preparation for this national study item, the Foreign Policy Committee of the League of Women Voters of Palos Verdes Estates has been conducting workshops of informal discussions based on books members are currently reading.

Some of the questions to be covered by Tuesday's meeting include: The aims of United States foreign economic policy; how United States foreign economic policy is related to domestic prosperity and to our quest for a secure and peaceful world.

League Coffee

A get-acquainted coffee for new and prospective members of the League of Women Voters of Palos Verdes Estates will be held tonight at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Robert Christensen, 121 Via Alameda, Hollywood Riviera. Mrs. Allen Curtis, also of Hollywood Riviera, will be co-hostess.

Membership in the League is open to all women of voting age in the South Bay-Peninsula area. All interested in attending may call Mrs. Robert Christensen, FR. 5-8270.

Temple Cocktail Party Committee Is Announced

Colonel and Mrs. Sidney Green, membership chairmen of Temple Menorah of the South Bay, 112 N. Catalina, Redondo Beach, announce the committee chairmen for the Temple Membership Cocktail Party, at the Temple Sept. 12, from 7 to 9.

Heading the various committees are: Mmes. Katie Weinstein, food; Rube Drabin, decorations; Bill Brodsky, hosts and hostesses; Arnold Cowan, invitations; and Melvin Schymacher, publicity.

Mrs. Bill Brodsky has already named the couples who will act as official hosts and hostesses. They include the following: Messers and Mmes. Isaac Mirzahi, Gene Alfred; George Lewison (Lewison is president of Temple Menorah); Ezra Wellens; Joe Caplan; Milton Feinberg; Jerome Scharfman; Phillip Weinstein, and Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Groveman.

The Starlight Evening Cocktail Party is an annual event for Temple Menorah. Any persons interested in learning of the Temple and its activities may call Sidney or Evelyn Greene FR. 5-0863 for reservations. Officers of the Temple, Sisterhood, Mens Club and Religious School Boards will be present to answer any questions along with the spiritual leader of the Temple, Rabbi Henri E. Front.

Anyone wishing to come to this gala event should call Sidney or Evelyn Greene, FR. 5-0863 for reservations. There will be absolutely no charges or solicitations of funds that evening.

NOVA SCOTIA PICNIC

The Nova Scotia Society of Southern California will hold its annual picnic in Bixby Park, Long Beach, Sept. 12, at 1 p.m. Anyone born in one of the four Provinces is invited to come with their friends and a picnic basket. Coffee will be served by the committee.

POPULAR SEASON fashion notes combine in this chic jersey belted dress. Plaid, a favorite for fall, and the new colors of green and blue join to make the ensemble a top favorite. The dress will be shown today as part of the fall collection of Moore's Women's Wear, 1274 Sartori Ave., at Caprino's noon style show. Torrance Mannequins will model.

Rho Xi Chapter Hears Talk by Alan Jones

RHO XI Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi gathered recently to witness an educational and interesting presentation by Mrs. Angus Mitchell, president directed the meeting. Sixteen Beta Sigma Phi members and two guests Mrs. Alan Jonas, representing the American Cancer Society.

Barbara Christ and Mrs. Lori Brinks, gathered for the event with Mrs. Jane Henry as hostess.

Preceding the program, Mrs. Jean Martin, social chairman reported on the success of the recent spaghetti dinner held at Higgins Brick Yard by her committee.

Mrs. Henry, ways and means chairman, announced completion of plans for an Aug. 28 paper drive by her committee members and gave a report on the recent Southern California Council of Beta Sigma Phi's breakfast.

Mrs. Ray Jennings of Lomita, a past president of Rho Xi Chapter who is presently serving the South Bay Area Council as vice president, announced formulation of plans for the proposed "Guest Day" Oct. 13.

The event will be hosted by Beta Sigma Phi chapter members affiliated with the South Bay Area Council. Prospective rushees will be introduced to the Sisterhood's aims and purposes, local, Council, State and International activities, and history of Beta Sigma Phi.

Mrs. Mitchell announced that the Sept. 9 meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Shirley Adams of 13905 Doty Avenue, Hawthorne.

Rotary Anns Attend Luncheon

Torrance Rotary Anns will join the Torrance Rotarians at their regular luncheon meeting at the Palms Sept. 9 at 12 p.m.

Guest speakers Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kasey will address the group on their personal experiences in Africa and China and discuss the internal politics of the countries.

Mrs. Glenn Koger, wife of the Rotary Club president is serving as temporary chairman of the newly formed woman's group.

Board members are Mmes. William Shawger, Portuguese Bend; Glenn Koger, Palos Verdes; George Post, Torrance; Stuart Marsee, Redondo Beach and Donald Meyer, Hollywood Riviera.

Bingo Party

Mrs. David I. Tanner was hostess to a Bingo party at her home, 4256 Newton St., Thursday evening. Each member brought two gifts and a prize was given for each game played. The door prize was a barbecue set donated by the hostess.

Members attending included Mmes. Jack Lucas, Jim Mechura, Myrl Rupel, John Wallace, Bert Levy, Perk Perkins, George Jordan, and guest Lavane Forsythe.

Perk Perkins, past president of South Torrance Lions, stopped by to discuss plans for taking children stricken with Muscular Dystrophy to Disneyland. Lionettes will assist with transportation and care of the children for the day.

The hostess baked an original cake representing a bingo card which was served with coffee.

MRS. GRANT C. CLARK — Ruth Jacobs Portrait

CFWC Commended on 'Drunk Driver' Stand

A resolution of commendation was presented to the California Federation of Womens Clubs this week by the Los Angeles City Council for "sincere interest in the drinking driver problem."

Mrs. A. F. Benton, President, C.F.W.C. in accepting the resolution stated, "Drivers who prove by their own actions that they are a menace to themselves and others must be denied the privilege of operating motor vehicles."

Seventy-five thousand members of the C.F.W.C. have accented the challenge to prevent needless waste of life and property, by continuing work on a program of "Education for Safety."

Cooperating with the General Federation of Womens Clubs through its "passport for Safety," thousands of BALLOTS FOR BETTER DRIVER LICENSING were sent to Robert McCarthy, State Director of Motor Vehicles. Club members and leaders are encouraged to "go to traffic court as a visitor, not a violator."

Mrs. E. L. Berdrow, State Safety Chairman, has also launched a pedestrian safety program organizing community safety committees and asking for strict enforcement of the law.

the subjects of Palmistry and Astrology.

Sept. 29 — A speaker on the practice of Yoga will address the group.

Steele Belles Welcome New Singing Talent

"Do You Like to Sing?" is the question being asked by the Steele Belles, a group of Mother Singers, who are members of the Carl Steele PTA, and are also one of the most outstanding amateur choral groups in the Southern Los Angeles area.

If you like to sing, the Steele Belles have a place for you. Soprano voices are especially needed, although any and all are welcomed. Young men are not excluded, as a male group is now in the planning stage, according to Mrs. Lorman Griffith, Steele Belles Director. A substitute pianist is also needed to assist Mrs. Edward Clark, Steele Belles accompanist.

Those interested in joining the Steele Belles or the male singing group may contact Mrs. Griffith at FR. 9-6137.

A busy schedule of musical activities is planned for the coming school year, including a Spring Musical to take place in May of next year.

Practice sessions take place weekly, Tuesday mornings. Child care will be provided for preschool age children during practice sessions.

For information call Philip Pansky, OS. 6-8863.

NO CAKES, JUST COFFEE—From left, Mmes. Keith Vandervort, Paul Miller and William Tucker of the McMaster's Park Mothers' Club display the baking equipment they won't need for their "bakeless" bake sale as they take a coffee break at the Vandervort home, 3736 Waller of the 176th St. The "bakeless" sale will be held at the park clubhouse.

Los Concioneros Slate Tenth Season Conditions

Auditions for new members of Los Concioneros, South Bay's mixed chorus, will be held Sept. 10 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Beckman, 820 Calle de Arboles, Hollywood Riviera.

Interested singers are invited to call FR. 5-1633 or FR. 2-1851 for audition information and appointments.

Regular Tuesday evening rehearsals for the group's tenth season will begin Sept. 15 at El Retiro Park, Hollywood Riviera. Plans are under way for the traditional season opener, the popular "Sing for Your Supper" October 25, at the Masonic Temple, Redondo Beach.

The group has just completed its first summer workshop which grew out of the desire of many of the members to continue work during the summer months, normally a vacation period for the chorus.

This activity attracted seventeen singers from outside the organization and culminated in the performance of Zoltan Kodaly's "Missa Brevis" as part of a Festival of New Music presented by the Music Committee of the Pacific Unitarian Church of Torrance. The festival was held at St. Cross Episcopal Church, Hermosa Beach and also featured solos by Stella Herman, soprano, and Mildred Kammeyer, organist.

Barbara Mabin, director of Los Concioneros, is a resident of Rolling Hills and was formerly Minister of Music at the Neighborhood Church of Palos Verdes. Mrs. Mabin states that new members of the chorus will be selected on the basis of musicianship, choral experience, ability to blend and to meet general membership requirements.