

"REALISM, NO ABSTRACTS, for me," says Edythe Kerr, local artist, as she puts the final touches on one of her landscapes. An artist who received training in adult education classes, Edythe will hold her first one-man show at the Artists' Co-op gallery Sept. 11 thru 24.

Hirnbeck, legislation; Mrs. A. L. Campbell, courtesy; Mrs. Charles Mullen, T.E.A.C.; Mrs. Thomas Denman, co-chairman freshman year; and Mrs. F. Roberts, parent education.

Wolverton and King United in Marriage

A family tradition was begun Saturday when Miss Claudia Rosalind King repeated wedding vows at the same church her parents were wed 25 years ago.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. King of 2267 Carson St., wore a floor length gown she had fashioned herself for the ceremonies uniting her to Richard A. Wolverton, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon A. Wolverton of 4697 E. Nevada St., Fresno.

The gown of white chantilly lace and taffeta featured an empire stand-up collar, long sleeves and a bolero jacket. Her veil of fingertip length was attached to a crown of pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses and stephanotis.

Serving the bride as maid of honor was Miss Lauretta King. Bridesmaids were Miss Jean Watson, Mrs. William Kesselman and Mrs. James Perry.

Rev. Gilbert S. Zimmerman officiated at the ceremony with Donald Wolverton as best man and Roger Wolverton, James Perry and Dick Hiebert as ushers. Scott Hofferber acted as ring bearer and the bride's younger sister, Beth, as flower girl.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the church. The newlyweds then left for a honeymoon in Northern California.

Lesson Sermon

"Will you bid a man let evils overcome him, assuring him that all misfortunes are from God, against whom mortals should not contend? ... Are material means the only refuge from fatal chances?" These challenging questions from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, are included in the Lesson-Sermon on "Man" in all Christian Science churches Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon includes a discussion of the healing and redeeming effect of an understanding of man's spiritual and divine origin in God as Christ Jesus proved it.

Evening Studies Pay Off in One Man Show

Does an adult education are class ever turn out a real artist?

Mrs. Andy Kerr of 1466 West 214th St. says, yes and proves it by her own work.

In announcing her first one man show Sept. 11 through 24 at the Co-op Gallery, 121 Pacific Ave., Redondo Beach, Mrs. Kerr reveals that all her art training stems from local evening classes.

"When I first started Torrance High School classes six years ago I had a hobby in mind," she admits. It turned into something very different," she adds.

Local Youths Make Rugged Pack Trip

A group of 25 youths from the South Bay area left last Sunday for a rugged back pack trip from Devil's Postpile to McGee Creek. This is a section of thirty-three miles along the John Muir Trail. The total trail is two hundred ten miles extending from Yosemite to Mt. Whitney.

Each year, under the sponsorship of the Torrance YMCA, youths from the ages of fourteen and over, and adults sign up in advance to make this trip, which is becoming more popular each year. There is good fishing along the way, through the mountains, in the lakes and streams, which are abundant with trout. The days catch is cooked over open fires, before the campers bed down under the stars.

The hikers carry their food and equipment on their backs, for the entire week. The group is under the leadership of Joe Wilcox and Doug Cannon, directors of the Torrance YMCA.

Those taking part in the John Muir Trail Hike include: Bob Bailey, Wesley Beeson, Norman Bostick, Paul Bush, Allen D'Ornellas, Cap Egelund, Doug Hoffman, Tom Kane, Victor Masaki, Julius Meier, Mike Metzner, Tom Meyer, Dal Moore, Greg Radford, Frank Renz, Gary Simerly, Craig Brandow, Rocky Chaney, Dave Graham, Hugh Tower, and Steve Wilson.

Descendant of a long line of European tailors, Tine's, "the tailor," announces plans to enlarge his Walteria store. Some twenty years ago, Tine's opened his first shop in Long Beach, introducing a new concept into the field of men's clothing. Tine's policy is to make up a select stock of ready-for-wear from his own bolts of imported fine woolsens. His ready-for-wear suits and sport coats have the same exacting and meticulous details usually found only in tailored to measure clothes. These fine summer and new Fall clothes are now offered for sale at disposal prices to expedite the remodeling program. Entire stock of clothes must be sold before the cabinet makers can get on with the job of remodeling and enlarging the selling space of his store.
